CEMETERY ORGY

Girls Hunted By Police Here

Surprise Delay in Trial
Of Two Port Alberni Youths

Two young waitresses sought in connection with the Sunday grave desecration at Alberni are being hunted in the Victoria area, it was learned today.

The two girls, whose names are known to police, but have not been released, are suspected of participating in the moonlight orgy in Greenwood Cemetery when an adult male corpse was dug up and dragged around behind a car with a logger's boom chain.

Two young men, David Windsor Ferguson, 19, and William Nelson, 18, were placed in custody by RCMP officers Wednesday night.

They are being held in separate jails, Ferguson at Alberni and Nelson at Port Alberni.

The two were to have appeared in court at Port Alberni this morning but police who left for Alberni to bring back Ferguson returned without him and announced the court appearance would now be delayed until Friday at 10 a.m.

No reason for the delay was given.

Recently Freed From Oakalla

It was learned that one of the youths, Ferguson, was recently released from Oakalla Prison Farm at Burnaby, where he had been serving a term for breaking and entering.

The case, which has created more public outrage than any crime in the annals of the Alberni Valley, was broken dramatically Wednesday night by an anonymous telephone call.

Following an appeal by mayors of Port Alberni and Alberni for assistance of the public in locating the youths who wrecked the cemetery and desecrated the body, a deep-voiced male phoned the home of Mayor Ben Wright at Alberni.

Mrs. Wright advised the caller the mayor was out of town and asked if she could be of assistance.

"Yes—if you want to crack the Greenwood Cemetery deal, get in touch with the waitresses at the Beaufort Cafe," the caller said.

On being asked his identity, he hung up.

"Two girls subsequently sought by the RCMP were found to have left town. When last heard from they were headed for Victoria where they told friends they would look for work."

They said if they got jobs in Victoria they would stay there. RCMP are reported searching the Victoria area. If the girls are located they will face charges either of "... causing indignity to a dead body ..." under section 167 of the criminal code, or with wilful damage.

The wilful damage charge would be substituted if there was insufficient evidence to secure conviction, on the more serious, former charge.

Police moved swiftly after the telephoned tip. Although the girl suspects were missing, their suspected male escorts were arrested.

Nelson lives just opposite the Alberni police station and officers merely walked across the street to take him in custody. Nelson apparently made a full statement to the police. Ferguson is reported to have continued denials of any knowledge of the macabre incident.

The mother of one, Mrs. Ferguson, told reporters "I can't understand why David would ever do such a thing."

"He behaves like a gentleman at home. He and his two sisters (one older and one younger), form a very happy family."

"The whole thing is like a nightmare. I just can't believe it." She indicated she was still convinced of her son's innocence.

At 2 a.m. this morning, Mrs. Ferguson interviewed her son at the jail.

"Aren't you happy at home. Why do you do this to us?" David made no reply, merely shaking his head. He asked why his mother had come to see him.

PGE Bridge Breakup Wrecks Huge Crane

SQUAMISH (CP)—A 30-foot section of a Pacific Great Eastern Railway bridge gave way Wednesday and toppled a 100-ton crane into the rain-swollen Mamquam River.

In a second accident, a rock slide derailed a work train five miles north of Horseshoe Bay early Wednesday night. The Diesel engine of the train swung off to the left as it plowed into the slide, believed from the upper levels highway construction job. Had it swung to the right, it may have plunged 50 feet into Howe Sound. No one was injured.

Less than half an hour before the high-running river washed out the bridge approach, an eight-coach train carrying about 140 persons had passed over. The washout is north of here.

Crane operator R. M. Rennie jumped from his machine seconds before it tipped into 12 feet of water.

TRAFFIC STOPPED

All PGE traffic between Horseshoe Bay and Lillooet was halted by the accidents. The slide was cleared at dawn today but railway officials said it would be late this afternoon before the bridge was repaired.

A railway engineer said it is thought one of the pilings supporting the bridge had been undermined by the swift-flowing water, and it gave way under the weight of the crane.

"We lost two bents (sections of the bridge) including the pilings and stringers," he said.

"We must clear them out and start from scratch there, with new pilings, caps and stringers."

The crane was being used to clear away stumps and logs jammed against the bridge by high water following heavy rains the last few days.

Railwaymen said today they are studying the problem of recovering the crane.

A PGE official described the accidents as "some of those tough breaks that happen every so often." He said the Mamquam River is subject to flash floods. "It goes up and down like turning a tap on and off."

Mr. Rennie, who was scooping debris from the river, said a loud cracking sound warned him the bridge was going.

"I was just going to scoop down for another load when I heard it. I jumped and ran as fast as I could."

ACCIDENTAL SHOT KILLS NOBLEWOMAN

PERTH, Scotland (Reuters)—Lady Caroline Petty-Fitzmaurice, 17-year-old daughter of the Marquess and Marchioness of Lansdowne and a friend of the Royal Family, died today from wounds received Wednesday in a shooting accident.

Lady Caroline was shot in the stomach at her parents' home near Perth while handling a gun.

HERO'S WELCOME FRIDAY FOR NANAIMO CHAMPS

Nanaimo will stage a huge welcome Friday night when the Mann Cup Dominion lacrosse champion Nanaimo Timbermen return home from Toronto.

Timbermen won the fifth and deciding game Wednesday night at Maple Leaf Gardens, beating Peterborough Trailermen, 8-7. It is their first Canadian championship.

Timbermen are to arrive in Nanaimo by ferry at 5.15 p.m., Friday.

The team will be paraded through the streets to a downtown hotel, where a civic reception and banquet will be held. A public dance will follow.

St. Laurent, Drew Talk Senate Seat

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said today he telephoned Hon. George Drew Wednesday to ask whether the former Progressive Conservative leader was available for a public appointment. He indicated that he had an appointment to the senate in mind.

There have been reports that Mr. St. Laurent has offered a Senate seat to Mr. Drew, now convalescing in a Toronto hospital.

The Prime Minister told reporters on his return to the capital from his summer home, that he had not specifically offered Mr. Drew a seat in the upper chamber.

But there were many in Mr. Drew's party, he said, who believed the opposition could stand some strengthening in the Senate.

There are only five Progressive Conservative members in the 102-seat Senate.

Mr. St. Laurent said the question of how Mr. Drew could serve the country would depend on his health. But he had never felt that a Senate seat was a very strenuous job.

There might be other positions in which Mr. Drew could serve, the Prime Minister said.

"It would be a tragedy for a man of Mr. Drew's age to be debilitated from public service. I don't consider that 62 is more than just ripe manhood," said the 74-year-old Prime Minister.

Westwood, Peterson Join Cabinet in Shuffle

Mayor of Nanaimo New Trade Minister

Premier W. A. C. Bennett today added two new members to the provincial cabinet and shuffled a number of other portfolios in the wake of last week's election sweep.

The two new members sworn in by Lieutenant-Governor Frank Ross were Leslie R. Peterson, 32-year-old Vancouver lawyer, and Earle C. Westwood, Mayor of Nanaimo.

Mr. Peterson, in a surprise move, took over as minister of education from Ray Williston, who now will become full-time minister of lands and forests.

Mr. Westwood was appointed minister of trade and industry, taking over the portfolio previously held by Ralph Chetwynd.

In another surprising switch, Mr. Chetwynd assumed the agriculture portfolio in addition to the minister of fisheries post which he held in the last cabinet.

More Important

Mr. Kiernan, who like Mr. Williston has been holding two portfolios since the resignation from the cabinet of R. E. Somers Feb. 27, now becomes full-time minister of mines, relinquishing the agriculture post.

Premier Bennett told reporters following the Government House ceremony that the ministry will become increasingly important as the province's oil and natural gas resources are developed.

In the final cabinet switch, Labor Minister Lyle Wicks assumed the minister of railways portfolio previously held by Mr. Chetwynd.

Addition of the new cabinet members to ease the burden on Mr. Williston and Mr. Kiernan has been forecast since the Social Credit government was re-elected with a big majority last Wednesday.

Premier Leaving

Premier Bennett said he was acting quickly because he is leaving this weekend for two or three weeks' vacation and wanted the full cabinet to be in operation during his absence.

"It is sound business to reorganize at this time," the premier said in an interview.

The premier said there "may be" new legislation introduced at the next session to set up a new ministry of recreation, which has been urged by the province's hunters and fishermen.

YANKEES READY AND WAITING

CASEY STENGEL

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press Sports Writer

Fred Haney says the Milwaukee Braves will clinch the National League flag by Sunday. Walt Alston says the Brooklyn Dodgers will battle their way into a playoff and Casey Stengel says "c'mon anybody," because his New York Yankees are restless and eager to get the world baseball series started.

All clubs in the majors had an off-day today and no one was enjoying it more than Haney, whose Braves boast a full game lead with only three left to play.

"We're going to win it by Sunday," beamed the little Milwaukee skipper. "We're not going to need any playoff."

It was Haney's first real show of confidence in two weeks and the big factor behind that optimism was Philadelphia's 7 to 3 victory over Brooklyn at Ebbets Field Wednesday. Even with the setback, though, there was no all-is-lost attitude by Alston.

Reckoning Milwaukee's final three games with St. Louis and his own club's last three games with Pittsburgh, the Dodger pilot declared:

"We'll win three from the Pirates, the Braves will lose one to the Cards and the season will open here all over again next Monday." That would mean a playoff—one of those best two-out-of-three deals that decides the whole box of biscuits.

BABE ZAHARIAS ... died at 5:28 a.m.

The Babe Wouldn't Give Up

(See Career, Page 10)

GAVESTON, Tex. (UP)—Frail Babe Didrikson Zaharias, only a shell of the great athletic figure she once was, lost a heroic three-year bout with cancer early today.

The end came shortly after daybreak (at 5:28 Victoria time), nearly six months to the day after she entered hospital for the last time on March 29.

The great woman athlete died in her sleep, with her former wrestler-husband, George, at her bedside. He cried, his hulking 315-pound frame quivering after the months of waiting.

"It had to come," he sobbed, "and it was merciful ... quiet and peaceful."

"It's been a long fight and a hard one. The Babe fought so hard. The only way she knew how to fight, not just with her body but with her heart and mind."

George said that four hours before the end Babe stirred, blinked and smiled at him and said, "George, I ain't gonna die." Those were the last words she spoke.

"She went to sleep again then," he said. "She was worried about me because she could see I was so worried about her."

"From then on she went downhill. Her breathing became weaker and more labored. Finally, she just stopped breathing. The game's all over now."

CABINET

"All I know is what I read in the papers."

Cabinet ministers are "certainly underpaid," he said, and had received no increase in the last 30 years.

Appointment of Mr. Westwood to the cabinet gives Vancouver Island its second representative in the government. Public Works Minister W. N. Chant, who represents Victoria, was unaffected by the changes.

Mr. Westwood, mayor of Nanaimo for the last three years, was elected to the legislature for the first time last week on his second attempt in Nanaimo and the Islands riding.

Mr. Peterson was re-elected in Vancouver-Centre after first being elected to the House last January in a Vancouver-Centre by-election to fill the seat of George Moxham, who died.

The new members were sworn in at ceremonies at Government House attended by all members of the cabinet except Attorney-General Bonner who is attending a conference in Toronto.

Cabinet ministers taking over new portfolios came forward to take a new oath of office, while Mr. Peterson and Mr. Westwood also swore an oath of allegiance to the Crown in addition to the minister's oath.

GIRLS

"Because we love you," she said.

According to police statements the ghoulish party actually started in New Westminster last Saturday. It was there two teen-agers drank a bottle of whisky and devised the plan for the graveyard party.

They apparently drove to Port Alberni, picked up girl companions and a quantity of boxed Chinese food. They picked up a chain and a coal shovel. The food containers were left at the scene and provided valuable clues.

It was understood one of the girl companions told friends who worked in the same cafe of the graveyard party.

Nelson said he was too drunk on the night in question to account for his actions. There was no reason given for the appearance of a print dress which was draped over a tombstone.

PROFESSIONAL LIAR GOING TO PRISON

NEW YORK (AP)—Harvey M. Matusow's career as a professional liar was climaxed Wednesday by his conviction on five federal counts of perjury. He once starred for the government as an anti-Communist witness. Sentencing was set for Friday. Maximum is 25 years.

GOOD WORK BUT WRONG CHIMNEY

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Dr. Henry O. Erbland noticed something missing from the roof of his home.

The chimney was gone. His wife said a man had been walking on the roof all day and making a lot of noise. Under questioning by Dr. Erbland, the roof walker, a mason, discovered he was supposed to be working across the street and had removed the chimney from the wrong roof.

U.S. TO RESCUE

Crew Refused To Aid Selves In Shipwreck

TOKYO (UP)—A U.S. Coast Guard boat today rescued 34 crewmen from a British ship tossed on a coral reef by a typhoon that struck a glancing blow to Tokyo.

The 10,000-ton Bedford Earl was blown onto the reef by typhoon Harriet one mile off the east coast of Okinawa.

A U.S. Army spokesman said the 34 crewmen could have come ashore without outside assistance after the typhoon passed, but they refused to do so.

"The crew refused to launch lifeboats or rafts to come ashore," the spokesman said. "They sent out a call for aid and apparently intended to be rescued."

Cabinet Gives $20,000 To Courtenay Drainage

The provincial cabinet Wednesday approved a grant of $20,000 to the city of Courtenay to aid in an extensive drainage project for the low-lying community.

Total cost of the scheme is estimated at $58,000 and the city appealed to the government through the highways department for help.

FLOOD THREAT ENDS

NORTH VANCOUVER—Sunshine today is expected to end a flood threat for residents of the Mosquito Creek area in North Vancouver.

Municipal guards were posted on the creek overnight Wednesday as heavy rains pushed the stream to its highest level since the spring runoff. However, Seymour, Capilano and Mosquito Creeks dropped back to safe levels Wednesday.

PRINCESS IN MAU MAU LAND—Princess Margaret inspects an honor guard on her arrival at Mombasa, Kenya, to open her five-week tour of South Africa. Her tour marks first visit to Kenya by member of Royal Family since Mau Mau uprisings. Today Margaret was aboard Royal yacht Britannia on way across Indian Ocean for visit to British island colony of Mauritius.

Second Union Threat Hits B.C. Gas Line

VANCOUVER (CP)—A jurisdictional dispute between electrical workers and plumbers threatens to delay work on the Westcoast Transmission Co. natural gas pipeline from the Peace River area to southern B.C., already stalled by picketing rock and tunnel workers.

J. R. St. Elol, business manager of the plumbers and pipefitters Local 170, said Wednesday that union journeymen will "terminate their employment" on the pipeline by Oct. 5 if the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers continues to run pipelines in Vancouver.

He charged the IBEW with violation of two jurisdictional rulings.

Mr. St. Elol said he had protested to the B.C. Electric and IBEW officials "several times." Contracts for gas installation work in Vancouver are sublet by the B.C. Electric.

A. M. Morrison, IBEW business agent, denied that his union has been informed of the protest. He said the union was "only doing work that it has always done."

Mr. St. Elol charged that members of his local were "handling the tough jobs" such as main lines and river crossings and that the IBEW were running most of the smaller distribution lines.

A ruling handed down by the AFL in 1911 gives the jurisdiction for all pipe-fitting work to the plumbers and pipefitters, Mr. St. Elol said.

A walkout by plumbers from the natural gas pipeline under construction from the Peace River area to the B.C. lower mainland would involve the project in two jurisdictional battles.

The Rock and Tunnel Workers' Union, of Canada, striving for recognition since it broke from the International Hod Carriers Union two weeks ago, is picketing sections of the pipeline.

Dunsmuir Wins $1,000 Damages

Jury Rules Cousin's Book Libels City Real Estate Man

Robin James Dunsmuir, a great grandson of Robert Dunsmuir who founded a Vancouver Island coal empire, has won his damage suit for libel against his cousin, James Audain, author of a book "From Coal Mine to Castle" which deals with the Dunsmuir family.

A jury in Supreme Court Wednesday rendered judgment in favor of Mr. Dunsmuir and awarded him $1,000 for damages he suffered as the result of certain statements published in the book.

There was no order against continued sale of the book. The libel suit was a counterclaim to a slander suit against Mr. Dunsmuir by Mr. Audain who sought damages for slander to his book.

The jury dismissed Mr. Audain's slander suit. It said Mr. Dunsmuir was not guilty of slandering the book.

After the trial, Mr. Dunsmuir, a short, stocky real estate salesman, shook the hand of his lawyer, A. deB. McPhillips. "God bless you," he said, and walked out of the courtroom.

Mr. Dunsmuir's original claim was for $10,000 damages, but the jury reduced it to $1,000.

At the trial, Mr. Dunsmuir described his cousin as the "black sheep of the family."

He claimed certain statements in Mr. Audain's book inferred that he was illegitimate because it omitted naming him as a son of Robert James Dunsmuir. The book only named three daughters.

He said he was legitimate under the rulings of the B.C. Legitimacy Act passed by the legislature in 1922. The act states that any child born out of wedlock and whose parents married before Dec. 16, 1922, was legitimate from the time he was born.

George Gregory, counsel for Mr. Audain said the author did not claim that his cousin was illegitimate or had written anything to suggest that this was so.

Mr. Gregory said the statements in the book only implied that Mr. Dunsmuir was born before his parents were married.

Mr. McPhillips said the statements in the book were slanted to show Mr. Dunsmuir as illegitimate.

Iceland Keen About NATO, Pearson Says After Visit

OTTAWA (BUP)—Icelandic government leaders and others whom he talked in Reykjavik "are very keen on NATO," External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson said today.

He was answering indirectly a reporter's question about Iceland's desire to have American troops withdrawn. John J. Muccio, U.S. Ambassador to Iceland, accompanied Pearson here aboard the RCAF C-54 airliner.

Pearson said his visit to Iceland the past two days was "pleasant and very useful." Most of his discussions, he added, dealt with Canadian-Icelandic affairs "but mutual co-operation within NATO was also discussed."

U.K. Explodes 'Hiroshima' Atomic Weapon

MARALINGA, Australia (Reuters)—Britain tonight successfully exploded a "Hiroshima-sized" atomic weapon from a steel tower on this south Australian desert atomic proving ground.

Britain's sixth atomic explosion took place as dusk fell. It had been postponed several times because of unfavorable weather in the last few weeks.

Tonight's explosion was the first of a series of tests.

About 250 British, Canadian and Australian troops received their atomic baptism of fire five miles from the explosion. They were originally supposed to be in heavy shelters only one mile from "ground zero," but the plan was changed.

Bus Turns Over On Interior Road; 19 Escape Injury

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP)—Eighteen passengers and the driver of a west-bound Greyhound bus escaped injury early today when the bus fell on its side, 12 miles east of Greenwood, B.C.

Greyhound officials here said details are not available, but it is believed the bus hit a soft shoulder, causing it to turn on its side. None of the windows in the bus were broken.

Overflow Audience Sits in Choir Loft, Lines Communion Rail to Hear Evangelist

By DINAH KERR
Times Church Editor

The Tom Rees evangelistic mission attracted an overflow crowd to Christ Church Cathedral Wednesday night.

More than 1,800 persons crowded into the pews (seating capacity: 1,200), sat in the choir loft, lined the communion rail, stood in groups at the back of

200 Attended All Night Meetings

Hand-count revealed that at least 200 persons had attended all four evening meetings and another 300 were attending for the first time.

Theme of Wednesday's meeting was, the Resurrection of Christ.

"When we speak of the resurrection, we are not talking of theological fiction, but of facts," said evangelist Rees.

"If there is one thing the Christian church must say above all others, it is that Jesus Christ has risen from the dead, and behold, He is alive and alive forever more.

"Christ was delivered up for our offences and raised again for our justification. We are acquitted by His death."

He said it is erroneous to believe that Christ died on the cross merely to give us an example of how to face death. "There was no triumph or exaltation in Christ. Have you ever noticed how He shrank from death with horror?"

self why many disciples of our Lord faced death with joyful triumph but Christ cried 'My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?' "It is because the disciples faced only physical suffering in death and spiritual triumph. Jesus Christ faced a spiritual death that none of us will ever experience or understand."

Phoney Bomb Story Empties City Movie

Third phoney "bomb plant" of the year, in Greater Victoria evacuated about 350 patrons from Odeon Theatre Wednesday night.

Police detectives dismissed the incident as a prank after investigating the theatre in answer to a call from doorman W. J. Harris.

The doorman received a telephone call about 10.30 p.m., a quarter hour before the last show was due to end. A male voice said: "A bomb will go off shortly before a quarter to eleven."

Mr. Harris immediately announced an emergency over the public address system and patrons filed orderly from the movie before police arrived.

On Sept. 10 at Patricia Bay airport a TCA flight to Vancouver was delayed an hour while RCMP investigated a telephoned tip of a bomb plant on the aircraft.

Moviegoers were cleared from the Plaza Theatre April 4 when a similar bomb threat was received.

TEEN-AGERS TO HEAR EVANGELIST ON SUNDAY

Teenagers will meet with evangelist Tom Rees at First United Church Sunday at 3 p.m.

"Many older people have asked me whether they can come too," Rees said Wednesday. "The answer is no. This meeting is for teenagers only."

Schedule of other meetings in the Inter-Church Evangelistic Mission follows:

Thursday: Christ Church Cathedral, 8 p.m.

Friday: St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, lunch-hour meeting from 12.10 to 12.40 p.m. Evening meeting, Christ Church Cathedral, 8 p.m.

Saturday: Christ Church Cathedral, 8 p.m.

Sunday: Youth leaders' meeting, First Baptist Church, 4.30 p.m. Final Rally, Memorial Arena, 7.30 p.m.

The Fellow Next Door

GREATER VICTORIA'S POPULATION is growing. Greater Victoria's property values are growing. Greater Victoria's responsibilities are growing.

A few days from now one of those responsibilities will be presented to each resident of this community. The annual drive for funds to finance 19 welfare agencies will bring each man and woman face to face with the questions: Shall I give to the Community Chest? How much should I give?

They are questions that must be answered one way or the other. A negative answer to the first means that there will be less to help the needy folk around us—some pensioner who needs a nurse may not get one, some youngster who needs a home may not find it, some ailing mother will spend next summer in the city instead of having a week free of care at a holiday camp.

When you reduce the question to concrete cases like that these cannot be much doubt about the answer. Nobody can turn down such an appeal.

Yet year after year the records of the Community Chest show that many persons fail to realize the need; many fail to put the question in human terms of giving a hand to a neighbor who requires it. And year after year the Red Feather campaign fails to make its objective. Someone has to go without—a someone least able to do so.

And the same reasoning applies to the question of how much. Many worthy folk still interpret the drive in terms of a tag day. They do not seem to realize that what they donate must keep 19 welfare agencies going for a whole year. It was only 17 last year. Our responsibilities are growing.

Many a contribution could be doubled, trebled, quadrupled without inconvenience to the giver. If a sufficient number did that this year the drive could go over the top. The worries of our needy neighbors would be reduced for another year.

The goal this year is $220,000. The Community Chest is merely an organization to collect this sum and parcel it out among the member agencies. The collection and distribution costs are among the lowest in North America. Every cent possible goes to the work it is meant to support.

This year let's make history. Let's make the goal. Our responsibilities are growing larger—and nearer.

Loosening the Gag

WITH A VERY PROPER APPRECIATION for the public's right to know how its own business is being conducted, Mayor Percy Scourrah has quietly ignored the terms of the procedure (or "secrecy") by-law introduced by his predecessor.

The ruling, however, remains on the books. It will not remain there much longer in its present form. The finance committee, at the instigation of Ald. Robert Macmillan, is preparing amendments which will water down the one-man authority established by the regulation and re-introduce more democratic practices.

This is of a piece with the new administration at City Hall. Here is another example in which ground is being laid for greater confidence by the public in the men who have been elected to handle the city's business.

They are aware of the fact that it is the city's business—the business of all the taxpayers—and they are following a course which will keep the people better informed.

A Weakness in the Fabric

THE THOUSANDS OF GREATER Victorians who have flocked to hear the evangelist Tom Rees indicate a hunger in many citizens today for the benefits of a personal religion.

The material prosperity that followed the impoverishment of the second world war within a generation has not supplied what is lacking in many lives. The advent of such a well-known crusader as Mr. Rees — a layman who discusses human religion in human terms—offers the hope of fresh aid in solving personal problems, a new delivery of a message perhaps grown too familiar in the week-by-week attendance at local churches.

Mr. Rees has commented on the scarcity of "under thirties" at his meetings. This is a situation, he points out, which does not obtain in Britain, where youthful adherents have turned out in large numbers to hear him.

For Canadians, and for the church in Canada, it is indeed a situation that requires earnest study. What is lacking in church activities that causes non-attendance?

What will Canadian life be like in the next generation if the stabilizing influence of a large church population is allowed to dwindle?

The calibre and moral attitudes of the coming generation demand the attention not only of church leaders. They call for consideration equally from government and educational leaders—from all who are concerned with the future of our country.

No purely material civilization long survives. It is safe neither for its citizens nor for its neighbors. Today the greatest international threat is posed by materialism and anti-religion. If we can meet it with nothing more than more materialism there will be little point in the struggle. For with materialism goes the subjugation of the individual, the denial of the human spirit, the rejection of a higher idealism.

If such an environment faces our next, or next-but-one generation, then Mr. Rees and others of his calling will have rendered a high service—quite apart from their purely Christian mission—if they make the danger, and the solution, plain to all.

Salute to the Timbermen

THE MANN CUP, SYMBOL OF lacrosse supremacy, has been won by Nanaimo's Timbermen, and with the trophy go the congratulations of Victorians whose Shamrocks held it last year.

The Up-Island city deserves full credit for a great achievement. The team it assembled has the unusual honor of being the first western team to win the national series in Eastern Canada.

It is gratifying to know that interest in the national game has been so developed in this province that B.C. can attract the best players in the world.

As they receive the homage of their townfolk up-Island, members of the team may be sure that the best wishes of the capital are extended to them. A workmanlike outfit of stars has completed a fine season with the highest laurel lacrosse has to offer.

Paths of Vainglory

ONE CAN FEEL A CERTAIN amount of sympathy for Donna Rachele, the widow of Benito Mussolini, in her still continuing quest for the body of the former Italian dictator. After his execution by partisans, Il Duce's body was secretly buried so that his last resting place should not become a shrine for fascists. Donna Rachele, according to a news dispatch, hopes some day the Government will release the body to her for family burial.

In this she shows a constancy that does her credit, for her life, as well as that of Italy, was ruined by Mussolini's personal ambition.

The man who suffered the ignominy of being hung up by the heels in a public square beside the body of his mistress showed the same ruthlessness in his personal affairs that he did in his public career.

When he started on a course of greatness for himself and his country by attacking such an easy mark as Ethiopia he had little feeling for the fate of his victims. "Live dangerously!" he told Italians, from the vantage point of his Roman balcony. He gave them danger aplenty, to the point of extinction as a major European power.

Today all that he sought to do has been undone. He has become a quite brief and rather unpleasant footnote in history, a man whose grave might well remain unknown and forgotten along with the evil things to which his ambition led. Everything for which he stood died with him. Only Donna Rachele can mourn him for what he might have been.

Breaking New Ground

By WALTER LIPPMANN

AMONG THOSE who are dealing responsibly with the Middle East, no one in the West, I think it is fair to say, has as yet been able to expound a policy which looks ahead. Few will deny that a new relationship will have to be worked out with the Arab states, and that for the Western nations there lies ahead, as in Suez, a period when they will have to renegotiate many vested interests. But as to what the new relationship can and should become, as to how it is to be brought about, there is as yet no policy, indeed little more than a series of rearranged chairs.

It would not be too difficult to define a new policy if the problem in the Middle East were solely and simply how to end colonialism, how to liquidate imperial rule and to acknowledge their sovereign independence.

Britain has shown in India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon that this problem is soluble. The U.S. has shown it in Cuba and in the Philippines.

The great complication in the Middle East is that it is not only the Western imperial power which is being liquidated. There is also being liquidated the old social order of the Arab Islamic society, and with it the native ruling classes.

Unstable Regimes

Because of this internal revolution within Arab society, the governments which are falling here to the liquidated empires are as yet weak, unstable and unreliable. This makes it almost impossible to negotiate with them on the lines of a broad and far-reaching policy.

A broad policy with Egypt would mean underwriting the construction of the Aswan Dam, would mean a negotiated peace in Palestine, and would mean a modernization of the Suez arrangements in order to liquidate the remnants of 19th century imperialism, as represented by the old Suez Company. But the revolutionary government of Col. Nasser is too weak, too unstable emotionally and too reckless to play its part in such a policy.

The difficulty in forming the policy of a new relationship with the Middle East is not in how to describe and define its principles. They are well known and they have been put into practice elsewhere.

The practical difficulty is, first of all, to identify the new ruling class with whom the new relationship must be worked out.

In some countries this new ruling class, though it is in the making, has not yet come to the surface. Then there is the practical difficulty of dealing with the new rulers, in view of their strong bias against the West and their predilection for the ideal theory—they know little of its reality—of the Soviet form of government.

There is, says W. Z. Laqueur in his deeply informed book, "Communism and Nationalism in the Middle East," a powerful fascination which Soviet society exercises on the managerial class in the Middle East. The turn of events has shown them that in the Soviet world the technical intelligentsia is one of the privileged classes and that its privileges are likely to continue, if not actually to increase, in the future.

The West, Mr. Laqueur goes on to say, "has suggested various reforms such as Point Four, which may bring economic relief to the masses and may be welcomed by them in accordance with their interests. But they are hardly apt to catch the imagination of the key group, the intelligentsia. The Communists, on the other hand, turn almost exclusively to the intelligentsia."

Quicker Results

They appeal not to the great masses who are quite unready for political power but to the new ruling class. They are proposing to them a plan of economic reconstruction, which promises much quicker results than anything we can propose, and with it all the privileges of supreme personal power for themselves.

The Middle East is a classic example of being able to know what ought to be done without being able, at least as yet, to know how it can be done. What ought to be done is to establish effective communication between the Western world and the intellectuals of the Arab world. This is easier said than done.

But surely they are headed in the right direction who are seeking direct personal contact and what is called "cultural exchanges" with the educated classes in the Arab world.

As Our Readers See It

One Person's Opinion

It was most interesting to see that the Rookie of the Year award for lacrosse was given to Bill Barbour of the Vancouver Pils. This award is voted on by the sports members of the press and radio, and I think they should be congratulated on giving it to the most penalized player in the league. Yes, this award was actually voted to Mr. Barbour, who also holds the dubious honor of the serving the greatest number of penalties of the league during the 1956 season. Isn't this a fine example to hold up to our young players. The dirtier you play boys the better you are, so go to it, you have the blessing of the press and radio!

And there's no two ways about it, Mr. Barbour is a dirty player (yes, I know whereof I speak, I was at every game this season, I also saw him play junior lacrosse last season—can you say as much, Mr. Editor). He is a past master at the art of using the butt end of his stick when he gets into close quarters with opposing players, just to mention one of his unsavory tricks. I feel that his penalty record should have far out weighed any consideration that may have been given his playing ability, and that he therefore should not have even been in the running for the award.

In future years when it is found that our youngsters are playing the unsportsman-like type of game of Mr. Barbour I trust the press and radio will place the blame where it belongs at their own door, for they have placed the example before them.

(I have no doubt, Mr. Editor, that this letter will not be published—may show you up a bit, eh?)

Children's Zoo

I understand the Lions Club are planning to build a zoo at Beacon Hill Park regardless of protests from many Victoria residents.

What authority have these people to put little dumb creatures behind iron bars, subjecting them to the awful cold in the winter and the intense heat in the summer? It is very cold at Beacon Hill Park in the winter. They would also be helpless victims of hoodlums. We had some experience of what they are capable quite recently.

The explanation of building this animal prison is that children need the education on animal life. They can get all the education they need on television. Children who see the wonderful pictures of every kind of living animals and birds in their natural state — and talks are given explaining their habits and their mode of life—would have little or no interest in a few caged animals.

Zoo's are unnecessary these days and should be considered a thing of the past. Children these days expect so much.

Their every whim has to be catered to regardless of what suffers. I understand children will be allowed to handle the animals. Needless to say many of the poor creatures will be injured by the rough handling. I have seen kittens so badly injured by children they have had to be destroyed. The Cats Protection League can vouch for that.

What is the S.P.C.A. doing about it? I have heard no word of protest from them.

Critical Year

How true the Scriptures are at any time and in any situation. Please allow me to quote one verse relevant to the Suez crisis: "Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereupon if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it"; Isa. xxxvi.6.

I quite agree with Ald. W. F. Pinfold re his warning to the City Council about Civil Defence. He says "something must be done to interest the public in this threat," and I was glad to see that his views were printed on the front page of your valuable paper.

I myself saw what a little TNT could do at Halifax, and I happen to know enough about Bible chronology to realize that 1957 and 1958 could be the most critical years of all history! We should be prepared. Yet the Bible says it will come as a "snare" and if those "are not shortened, no flesh should be saved."

Why a Christian?

In his letter captioned "Religion by Geography" in your issue of Sept. 24, your correspondent suggests a very timely and pertinent question that professing Christians should ask themselves "Why am I a Christian?" and his comment "Very few ever do" is perfectly true.

His reasons why they fail to make the enquiry are sound. The same query (in another form) was posed in the early days of Christianity: "Keep testing whether you are in the faith; Keep proving what you yourselves are." (2 Cor. 13:5) and "make sure of all things; hold fast to what is right" (1 Thess 5:21).

Your correspondent's reasoning that "Mass beliefs are often unreliable . . . that because multitudes believe something is no proof that their belief is right" is undeniable.

But the few (comparatively) Christians who have delved deeply into their belief in the God who is the Creator and into his revelation of himself and his purpose for mankind as evidenced in the Bible, find Jesus' words (John 17:3) to be perfectly true and reliable: "This means everlasting life, their taking in Knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ."

Hound Dog and the Old Songs

IT MUST be a case of a single track mind. Until I put it on paper I can't dismiss the subject of rock and roll and its merits compared with, to quote an old title, "The Old Songs We Sang So Long Ago." The more I recall of the old times the greater grows the vote in favor of "Hound Dog" and "Suede Shows." You can hear the grandfathers snorting disdainfully at "Hound Dog" and the endless repetition of words in most of the rock and roll masterpieces.

But imagine the screams of derision from their rock and rolling grandsons if they ever got hold of a real old-time song album of the days when family singing around the piano was the custom in every household that had any pretence of culture at all.

Songs for Christmas for instance. Well, naturally for the Yule season you can make some allowance for sentiment.

But what a dear the "Mistletoe Bow" was to spur the festive mood, especially for grandchildren a little nery from over-eating and staying up late.

Bright and Gay
You know it of course but in case any teenagers should read this, as briefly as possible here it is. First line runs: "The mistletoe hung in the castle hall. The baron's retainers were bright and gay."

Without wasting space by quoting a lot of lines it is obvious from the song the baron was a jovial old lad and was giving a staff party. "All the retainers were bright and gay" indicates it was a real wing-ding of a do, and the mead was flowing freely.

The baron had a daughter who must have been a real-glamor-gal.

The party apparently got a little rough when they started to play games. Somebody must have made a pass at her or something. Anyway she rushed up to a landing on one of the ten flights of castle stairs, jumped into an oak chest and slammed the lid shut.

That's where she pulled a booby. It was one of those self locking jobs.

In the style of the furniture of that day it was a pretty sturdy chest, no veneer of fine trappings.

She was in a spot. She couldn't kick her way out and she couldn't scream loud enough to be heard outside.

In the interests of perfect accuracy I wish I had the words of the song.

Daughter Missing

I don't know if they packed up the party when they found the baron's daughter was missing or whether they stayed to finish the mead, but that doesn't really matter.

That's only half of the verses although it about winds up the story. To really put high spirits into the Christmas party there are other verses.

At another Christmas party the baron gave some years later it must have got a little out of hand again. Another charmer dashed up the stairway. She snatched at the lid and the trunk opened this time. There was the body of the former glamour girl missing for two or three Christmases. Quite dead, of course.

(Note: Merriman is confused again. There is a wide range of choice between the morbid songs he points to as examples and Elvis Presley's rock and roll numbers.)

The Canadian Angle

From The Toronto Globe and Mail

PROFESSOR A. R. M. LOWER of Queen's University paid the Canadian intellect no compliment when he complained that international dispatches in the country's newspapers do not give a distinctly Canadian view of world affairs. The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, he said, can provide Canadians with "our own picture of the outside world," a picture which the press should, but is not, presenting.

Professor Lower, in our opinion, offered the Royal Commission on Broadcasting a dangerously insular principle and a brief of incorrect information. The CBC, it must be remembered, is a Crown corporation, accountable to the government. Are these the eyes through which Professor Lower would have us view the world?

Most Canadians have a deep and justifiable suspicion of getting their interpretative news reports from "official" news agencies. One of the frightening blind spots of the Soviet Union is that Russian citizens see the world only through the official eyes of the Tass news agency and their "distinctly Russian picture" is a wildly distorted one.

No nation can achieve a personality, a character and a culture unless it understands the people of other lands, not in our terms, but in theirs. What a Canadian radio reporter may think of Nasser is not half so important as what the Arabs think of Nasser. The world does not revolve around Canada, much as Professor Lower may wish it so.

Again, there is the sweeping nature of Professor Lower's criticism. Just what complaints is he making? And against whom? Professor Lower could at least supply a bill of particulars; it is as unfair to condemn the whole of Canadian printed journalism on the basis of one newspaper or one news agency as it is unfair to condemn the CBC because of one station or one day's broadcasting.

Professor Lower took it as an accepted fact that the CBC outshines the press in disseminating news of world affairs. We offer him, for thirty cents a week, a complete refutation. Speaking only as one newspaper, we know from our own pages that it is not so. Gladly, we will stack up one day's issue of The Globe and Mail against a week's "Canadianized" budget of world news on the CBC. We ask Professor Lower if Canada can truly move from colony to nation vainly trying to picture Suez, Cyprus and sunspots in Canadian terms.

DULLES DOUBTS
TO RUN CANAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary Dulles predicted Wednesday Egypt will not be able to "get away with" single-handed operation of the Suez Canal. He appealed to disputing nations for "patience and resourcefulness" in dealing with the crisis.

Dulles was asked at a press conference whether he thought there would be Arab efforts to nationalize the great Middle East oil fields "if Egypt gets away with" its seizure of the canal.

He replied that he did not accept the possibility that Egypt was going to get away with it.

The Blur

I GET ALMOST frightened sometimes by the way the weeks go rushing by. Often, by the end of the month, I feel as if they'd telescoped themselves into a kind of kaleidoscopic blur.

But, out of the blur that's been September, I remember very clearly certain things.

I remember an afternoon when the living room table was suddenly loaded with school books, and family arguments had a strongly academic tinge. With Mother holding forth as usual on the importance of the humanities, even if they don't seem to have any immediate or practical use in the earning of a living.

(Sometimes I think I'm like a well-worn record, grinding out the same old tune. Namely, that history is the story of Man's actions and literature the expression of his thoughts, and if you don't know what people have done and thought in the past, you can't understand what they're doing in the present, and haven't a clue as to what they may do in the future. Just Mum. And go-one takes any notice. But let someone else's Mum or Dad say it, and that, of course is different!)

I remember, very vividly, the Social Credit Rally in the Royal Theatre just before the election date.

I'll never forget the enormous picture of Mr. Bennett smiling down upon us. It dwarfed everything on the platform. It was the image we carried home in our minds.

I remember the darkness when a transformer-blew out, and how, from somewhere, a light was shone upon the smiling, reassuring picture.

I remember how we were led in communal song to while away the time of darkness.

I remember the songs that were chosen, and how we sang that we shouldn't worry, but should smile, smile, smile.

I remember the irreverent voice that suggested "Cruising Down the River" and was somehow ignored.

But, best of all, I remember the voices that sang "Lead Kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom," and how the kindly light led our eyes to the one illuminated spot—the smiling picture of Mr. Bennett.

And, mixed in with the political showmanship of this almost-past month, I remember the home-coming of the boy who spent his summer with a government survey party working in the triangle south of Dawson Creek, east of the Rockies, and west of the Alberta boundary.

Then, for a while, talk was all of fly camps and "hoppy" and snow in July, and winds gusting up to 50 m.p.h. We heard about wapiti and moose, and ptarmigan and marmots, and tents and talking down to base camp.

And it seems to me that this type of summer job is magnificent experience for boys of that age.

Because of it, the map of British Columbia in our kitchen has taken on a new significance. That tiny portion of our province has been seen as no tourist could see it. Moreover, if you add to that the stories of school friends who were with other survey parties in other parts of the province, the increase in knowledge is considerable. Or so I hope!

From the September blur, I remember an evening when a fisherman friend dropped in on his annual visit, and one Grade 10 boy sat up far too late just listening to stories of the unfamiliar world of gillnetters, seiners, canneries and packers.

I remember another evening when the talk was all manure and organic farming. I remember the best sentence of all.

"I buried them in horse manure," he said, and we leaned forward, all agog! Oh, what a non-farming columnist could have made of that conversation!

A day with the Bookmobile to see the wonderful work it's doing in Central Saanich. A session with the Canadian Women's Press Club to listen to the problems and the work of professional writers. Painful hours of Elvis Presley. Hours and hours of pears and plums.

Yes, September's been a blur. Such a blur that now, if you'll excuse me, I'll just get cracking on the neglected housework and scrub the darned old kitchen floor!

Exploded Mica Fine
For Indoor Plants

Most of the new houses built within the last year or so feature indoor planters in one or more rooms.

Since the type of plants used for indoor decoration do much better in pots than in open soil, there is the problem of filling the planters with a suitable material into which the pots may be set.

An excellent medium for the purpose is the more recently discovered vermiculite. It is exploded mica, a mica rock which has been subjected to high temperatures to change its structure.

Its power to hold many times its own weight in water is the important point as far as house plants are concerned. The evaporation of this moisture creates a moist atmosphere around the foliage of the plants, the ideal condition for tropicals from jungle regions.

Registration Ends Tonight for Credit Courses at College

Last opportunity to register for credit courses in the Victoria College evening division will be tonight from 7 to 7:30, director Robert T. Wallace said today.

More than 80 persons have registered for the four courses—Geography 101, Spanish 90, English 200 and Calculus.

Psooriasis

Dr. Walter C. Alvarez is Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

Hundreds of persons ask me what to do for psoriasis. This is a hereditary and often life-long disease of the skin. Red patches covered with little silvery scales appear often on the outside of the elbows and knees, or on the back of the neck or on the scalp. For a while, the disease may almost go away, and then it may come back in an aggravated form. Often a skin specialist can give much relief with salves and perhaps ultraviolet radiation; but later, when the disease flares again, these measures may no longer work well. Then the unhappy skin specialist will have to try something else.

In some cases the disease flares up with emotional strain. I remember one of my patients, a tense, nervous woman, whose skin cleared in a few days when she started taking Rauwolfia drug.

One miserable feature about psoriasis is that it can affect the joints, to produce an arthritis. It can also affect the nails on the fingers and toes. I know of no constantly successful treatment.

LUMP IN THE GROIN

Quite a few persons ask me what to do about a lump in the groin. Obviously, the first thing to do is to get a diagnosis. If the thing is a rupture, the commonest danger is that it might come out and get caught. In that case, the person might lose his life unless he could get a surgeon to operate within an hour or two. Later, the bowel, and then peritonitis comes.

But the lump might be a cancerous growth and then the man's life will depend on having the thing removed quickly. Or if the man has a badly infected ulcer around an ankle, the lump in his groin may be just an enlarged lymph node. In that case the patient could see a physician and ask him to heal the ulcer.

What bothers me if that persons will let lumps go—sometimes for months—without finding out what they are. Often, then, when they do find out, it is too late to do anything. Cancer is then scattered through the body, and for this there is rarely any help.

WHAT INFANTS SWALLOW

Anyone who will visit an expert bronchoscopist or gastroscopist (a physician who looks with a lighted tube into the lungs or gullet or stomach) is likely to be shown a basket full of queer objects which have been removed from the air passages or stomach of small children.

Some of these objects were fairly easy to get hold of with forceps, or they could be pulled out with the help of a strong magnet; others which are round and smooth like a peanut may have been very hard to grip and remove. Many an open safety-pin had to be closed before it could be withdrawn. Experts have a special piece of apparatus on the end of a long wire with which they can close such an open safety-pin.

Occasionally, a small child will live for months with a peanut or other small object in the lung, and the parents will not suspect what is wrong. All they will know is that the child has a cough and is not well. Then an X-ray film of the chest may give a hint, showing, as it does, that part of the lung is shut off and not working.

One of the worst things a mother can do to her baby is to give him her button basket with which to play. This is only asking for trouble. Some of the objects get stuck in a child's gullet and then must be removed by an expert. Many of those that get down into the stomach can be left alone, because they eventually will be passed by rectum. Iron-containing objects that do not leave the stomach can sometimes be drawn out with the help of one of the new powerful magnets. In some cases the stomach has to be opened and the foreign body removed.

It would be well if mothers would train themselves to think of the possible dangers to a child before an accident happens, rather than after it happens!

A SHAKING HEAD OR HAND

Many elderly persons are unhappy because their hand or their head shakes. Often a shaking hand is hereditary; it may run in the family, and there is little I know of to do for it. In some cases, when a shaking is due to a Parkinson's syndrome the trouble is either a little unrecognized stroke, which injured the brain, or an encephalitis (brain fever). In these cases the physician can try a number of drugs which tend to quiet the tremor. I don't know of anything to do for a shaking head.

SYNOPSIS—With only a thin stitchwork of cloud over the province Wednesday night, cooling was quite pronounced, the central interior overnight minima lay generally in the low 50s but elsewhere stayed closer to normal values somewhere in the forties.

There should be a fair amount of sunshine in most areas of C. today except in extreme northeastern districts and along the north coast where a developing storm offshore promises in and wind later in the day. This disturbance should bring cloud to most areas of the province on Friday with showers expected in the central interior and along the south coast.

Cop-Slayer Gordon Loses Appeal Bid

The appeal of Joseph Gordon, 34, against a conviction of murdering a Vancouver policeman last December, was dismissed by the B.C. Court of Appeal Wednesday. Judgment on the appeal of James Carey, 26, also convicted of the same crime, was reserved by the court.

The two men are scheduled to be hanged on Oct. 16 for the slaying of Constable Gordon Sinclair. The policeman was shot through the head when he stepped out of his prowler car to investigate suspicious men outside a factory near Granville Street bridge.

Mr. Justice C. H. O'Halloran, in handing down the decision of the five judges, said reasons for dismissing Gordon's appeal will be given when they make the decision on Carey.

British Turbines for Columbia River Dam

EPHRATA, Wash. (AP).—Grant County Public Utility district commissioners have decided to use British-made turbines at a new Columbia River dam.

They announced the decision to buy turbines of the English Electric Company was made to avoid delays on the Priest Rapids dam project as a result of a legal suit.

A taxpayer brought suit recently to switch to Allis Chalmers turbines at an added cost of about $500,000. The British turbines are to cost about $12,000,000.

UNION AGENT SUES PAPERS FOR $100,000

HAMILTON (CP)—William Lisson, international repre- sentative for Local 1005, United Steelworkers of Am- erica, CLC, today filed two $50,000 suits for libel against The Toronto Star and The Toronto Globe and Mail.

Writs and statements of claim filed with the Supreme Court of Ontario referred to an alleged racial incident this month at the Steel Company of Canada plant in Hamilton.

Baby Kidnap Probe Costing $1,000 a Day

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP)—There's shortly afterward, into a lake a a long, narrow room in Hamden's mile away in this New Haven red brick police headquarters.

Men come in and go out all day long. Its lights burn all night. Three boys out fishing found This room has been borrowed Cynthia's body five days later, indefinitely by a New Haven county detective and a team of 50 investigators. Their work is costing $1,000 a day.

The investigators are seeking a solution to the kidnap-slaving of chubby six-weeks-old Cynthia Run- tolo, daughter of an $80-a-week paint salesman and his wife.

Nearly a month ago Cynthia was taken from her carriage in the foyer of a Sears Roebuck depart- ment store and thrown, apparently of important information.

SO NEAR YET SO FAR—The Duchess of Windsor (right) and Elsa Maxwell, who used to be good friends, arrived in New York from Europe Tuesday on the same liner—without having met en route. "I knew she was on board," said the duchess. "I didn't happen to see her." "I never laid eyes on her," commented Miss Maxwell in another stateroom. "We have no feud, but I have no interest in her."

PAINTING, WEAVING, CERAMICS

B.C. Artists Work On Show at Gallery

By AUDREY ST. D. JOHNSON

As its opening show of the 1956-57 exhibition season, the Art Gallery has mounted a large display of current British Columbia work in the fields of painting, print-making, weaving, ceramics and jewelry.

Outstanding in the painting section by virtue both by their physical size and aesthetic power, are the contributions of Margaret Peterson and Herbert Siebner. The latter has a really majestic canvas "The Lovers" whose glowing reds placed against greys and blacks have a remarkable force.

Margaret Peterson may be remembered for the rather startling show which she held at the Gallery three years ago. In the present exhibition her three vast temperas with their pulsating red and earth colors, combine designs of extraordinary power with symbolic figurations which are the more intriguing in that they are not explicit in their allusions.

Vancouver's Gordon Smith, who took first prize in last year's National Gallery Biennial of Canadian Painting, is represented by three paintings, quiet and strong which have very beautiful qualities of texture and color and great sensitivity in form.

Distinctive Step Forward As Painter

Myfanwy Pavell's three contributions represent a very distinct step forward in her progress as a painter. The small canvas "Flowers" in a gem of spontaneity and a remarkable piece of color organization. "Study," a self portrait, is an exceedingly sensitive work in cool colors whose delicacy and subtlety are probably equal to anything being produced in Canada today.

Other works well worth noting are Jan Zach's "Ecce Homo," Bill West's handsome and solid "Still Life with Blossoms," John Ritchie's "Yellow Knife" in its unusual free form format and the "Four Figures" of a newcomer, Gino Sedola. John Korner, Don Jarvis and Jack Shadbolt are also represented by works which if not out of their "top drawer" are all rewarding.

Outstanding among the prints and drawings are Orville Fisher's unusually large and impressive aquatints, Ina Uthoff's extremely sensitive charcoal portrait and Jan Zach's strong and impressive studies entitled "Lament."

The ceramic section is represented by local works and by a powerful contingent from Vancouver. Some extremely fine jars, plates and casseroles have been contributed by Olea Davis, Zoltan Kiss, Alan Makovkin and Rex Mason.

This is the first time the gallery has shown modern jewellery in any quantity, and there are a score or so of varied pieces of high quality. Particularly noteworthy are Dorothy Williams' five contributions with their elegant design and sensitive use of beach stones with silver. Ina Woodcock has three restrained and extremely tasteful and well-designed pieces in ceramic material.

The weaving contribution comes entirely from Victoria, and is of the high quality we have come to expect from our Weavers' Guild. Ethel Hammond's linen runner and Hazel Hodson's two evening bags and

900 Prints in Photo Salon; Judging Set for Oct. 19, 20

Almost 900 prints and several hundred color transparencies have been submitted in Victoria's 16th annual International Salon of Photography, director James A. McVie, APSA, said today.

Closing date for all local entries is Oct. 13. Judging will take place Oct. 19 to 20.

Sponsored by Victoria Camera Club, the salon has attracted prints from Australia, Austria, Brazil, China, Cuba, Finland, France, England, Hungary, India, and Germany.

Judges in the print exhibition will be Dr. Joseph Bricker, APSA, Vancouver; Commander P. F. Fairfull, Victoria, and George L. Kinkade, FPSA, Auburn, Wash.

Winning photographs will be hung in the Art Gallery from Nov. 11 to 25, and slides will be shown at various centres during these dates. Color chairman is Bernard R. Evans.

'SMOKE OUT' PLAN COSTS FIVE LIVES

CHICAGO (AP)—Police say Willie Lee Chism, 27, has admitted that in trying to "smoke out" his wife he set a tenement fire which killed five persons and injured 11 Tuesday morning.

They said Wednesday that Chism admitted dropping a lighted match into some rubbish where he thought his wife was hiding after a quarrel. Neither Chism or his wife was hurt. He is being held without charge for further questioning.

$45,000 Water Main Approved For New Point Ellice Bridge

Installation of a new 30-inch pipeline, to cross the proposed new Point Ellice Bridge, was approved by Greater Victoria Water District officers Wednesday. Cost will be $45,000.

Contract for installation and supply of the pipe was awarded to Dominion Bridge Ltd., the same firm which holds the city contract for steel construction.

The water board expects to get about $7,000 from sale of the present pipe which crosses the bridge. It will be sold for use as culvert pipe.

Water Commissioner Ronald

Upward said the new pipe will be installed under the new bridge, rather than along one side as at present. He said it should be trouble free for the life of the bridge.

He said the digging of a tunnel under the harbor narrows for the pipe was considered but costs would have reached $100,000. The pipeline, if merely laid on the harbor bottom could not be expected to last 25 years, he stated.

He said the cost of the pipe had jumped from $13 to $19 a foot in the last few months. The 3,000 feet necessary for the job increased from $13,000 to $19,000, following settlement of the recent United States steel strike.

The water official also pointed out that during the installation of the new pipe and removal of the old, Victoria West residents will depend for water on an old main from Esquimalt.

"If anything should happen to that, they would be faced with a five or six-hour shutdown, while it is fixed," Mr. Upward pointed out.

Ratepayers Aim To Sue E & N

Island Association Asks for Fiat To Take Action on 'Contract Breach'

Vancouver Island Ratepayers' Association will apply for a fiat to sue the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway Company for breach of contract.

Association president G. E. Bonner of Cobble Hill said Wednesday application will be made to Ottawa.

A demand will be made for return to the subsidy holders of all monies diverted by the railway to other purposes than operation costs.

Meanwhile, at Port Alberni, Mayor L. K. Jordan described the E. and N. passenger service as "... inadequate, abominable and antiquated."

The ratepayers' group is protesting discontinuance of station operating service at Shawigan Lake, Friday. It means withdrawal of the only operating station agent between Duncan and Victoria.

Protest will also be registered against the discontinuance of passenger service between Port Alberni and Nanaimo.

ENFORCE AGREEMENT

Board of Transport at Ottawa will be asked to enforce the E. and N. agreement which states in substance the railway will be required to maintain and operate the same type of service and equipment as is operated by the CPR on the mainland.

Mr. Bonner's telegram to the Board of Transport Commission in Ottawa follows: "The attention of the board is called to paragraph 11 of the articles of the E. and N. Railway Company agreement in dealing with the application to discontinue passenger service between Port Alberni and Nanaimo, also to discontinuance of station operating service between Duncan and Victoria. It appears the only recourse for the subsidy holders is by application to the minister of justice for a fiat to sue the E. and N. Railway for breach of contract and damages to the amount of subsidies diverted to other uses than the operation of the E. and N. Railway. We therefore protest these applications. Vancouver Island Ratepayers' Association, G. E. Bonner, president."

At Port Alberni, Mayor Jordan told council, Chamber of Commerce members and U. B. McCallum, district inspector of the Boards of Transport Commissioners:

"Strictly speaking, there has never been a passenger service in here... anyone riding the present coaches must be soft in the head."

Alberni alderman Michael Hamilton asked for a six-month trial operation of a diesel day-liner such as is used between Victoria and Courtenay.

Little Done For Access Roads Chamber Says

NANAIMO — Problem of access road development up-island will be put before the provincial ministers of lands and forests and highways.

Meeting here Wednesday the executive of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Vancouver Island announced appointments will be arranged between their directors and Hon. P. A. Gagliardi, minister of highways, and Hon. Ray Williston, minister of lands and forests.

"So far as we know not one additional mile of new road has been opened up on the island," said one association spokesman. The executive said it was "very anxious to know the state of the access road program on the island," particularly between Jordan River and Port Renfrew, and the Alberni-Tofino-Ucluelet links.

MLAs from the two districts also will be invited to attend the meetings.

Delegates from chambers and boards of trade from all major island points voted at the one-day session to set up three committees for study of roads, tourism and industry.

Committee chairman will be Larry Wight, Nanaimo, research and industry; F. G. Aldersey, Duncan, roads; and Ray Knight, Nanaimo, tourism. They will serve as ex-officio members of the executive.

T. B. Hargreaves of Campbell River presented a life membership in the association to Maj. H. C. Holmes of Victoria.

FIRE BURNED UNREPORTED, $25 FINE SET

COURTENAY (CP) — Lawrence Thomas Gray was found guilty in police court Wednesday of a charge of failing to report existence of a fire within a half mile of a forest or woodland. He was fined $25 and costs by Stipendiary Magistrate John Ryland.

Vancouver Firm to Build New Chemainus Power Plant

CHEMAINUS — General contract for erection of the B.C. Power Commission's new thermal power plant at Bare Point, to be known as the Georgia Generating Station, has been awarded to Northern Construction Co. and J. W. Stewart Ltd., Vancouver.

The contract was for $1,283,586.

Work on the project is expected to start early next month.

In the meantime, the construction company plans to build housing accommodation here for 200 workers. Site for erection of bunkhouses will be on MacMillan & Blooded Ltd. property south of the Beemer-Helms housing area and on the right side of the road to Bare Point.

COWICHAN BAY CEREMONY

Island Will Greet Seattle Fair King

DUNCAN — The reigning monarch of the famed Seattle Seafair, King Neptune, will visit Cowichan Bay Saturday with his entourage.

This year's king, William Culliton, will be accompanied by his queen, Dixie Jo Thompson, with her attendant, Marli Jansen and the "prime minister," Allan Ferguson.

The visitors will be in full costume and will enroll a number of prominent Vancouver Island citizens in the Neptune Club of Seattle.

Mayor J. T. Dobson of Duncan will welcome the party ashore at Ordano's Wharf at 3 p.m. Members of the Indian opera Tzinquaw will perform a welcome dance.

A fishing expedition is planned later in the afternoon and a banquet will be held at 8:30 p.m. in Buena Vista Hotel.

Receiving membership scrolls in King Neptune Club will be: Sam Lane, chairman of the tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce; Ken McAdam, president, Duncan Chamber of Commerce; Mayor Dobson, Conway Parrott, president Vancouver Island Publicity Bureau; Mr. and Mrs.

D. Ordano, Cowichan Bay, and Sam Moss, proprietor of the Buena Vista Hotel.

Snapped Cable Lashes Logger Near Duncan

DUNCAN (CP) — R. L. Robson, about 60, of Cobble Hill, suffered serious head and back injuries Wednesday when a cable broke at the Hillcrest logging operation near here and struck him.

Officials at King's Daughters' Hospital in Duncan said the full extent of his injuries will not be known for several days. His wife operates a cafe here.

Credit Union Elects Sidney Bus Driver

Sidney school bus driver Norman Shillito was elected president of the Saanich Peninsula Credit Union at a meeting in Sidney Wednesday night.

Secretary of the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce, he succeeds W. R. Kimmerly, recently transferred by Trans-Canada Airlines from the airport to the Victoria office.

C. Saanich Sets Limit Of 30 MPH

SAANICHTON — A uniform speed limit of 30 miles an hour will be enforced throughout Central Saanich municipality, it was decided at special council meeting this week.

The new order will not apply to Patricia Bay highway or the standing restrictions in school zones.

Action followed recommendations by the police commission to establish a 40-mile zone on Keating Cross Road.

Coun. Ray Lamont urged that signs be erected at roads entering and leaving the municipality warning motorists of the 30-mile restriction.

'The Babe' Dies; T-Men Take Title

Famed Woman Star Wrote Many Records

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Babe Didrickson Zaharias, the greatest woman athlete the world has known, died today after a stubborn battle with the one competitor she couldn't beat—cancer.

Almost to the last, The Babe Sports editors six times named her a courageous show. But her friends were sick at heart to see the decline of the once-great athlete.

Almost constantly with her in her declining months was her husband, the wrestler turned promoter and real estate operator, whom she married in 1933, when she was known as the "Weeping Greek from Cripple Creek." They were married a year after they met at a golf tournament.

Mrs. Zaharias made an estimated $1,000,000 in professional sport.

In Track, Too, a Champion

A few months later she won the national AAU women's track and field championship single-handedly, taking five first places and tying for another.

That brought her a place on the 1933 Olympics team. In the qualifying round she won nine of 10 firsts but was allowed to compete in only three Olympic events.

She won two of them — the javelin throw and 80-metre hurdle — with world records. She also outdistanced the world's record in the high jump but didn't win because she was disqualified on her best jump.

She was diving over the bar and ended in second place. It happened like this:

The Babe and Jean Shiley of the United States both jumped 5 feet 5 inches to wipe out in the world's mark. The bar then was raised to 5 feet 5 1/2 inches. Both missed, with The Babe knocking the bar off when her foot struck the standard although she cleared the bar.

No Sports Honor Eluded Babe

She won some 30 tournaments. Into her 42 years she packed athletic triumphs that began with basketball tournaments, included track, then the Olympics and finally the golf courses of the world.

Almost from the start she was known affectionately to sports fans as The Babe, a tag hung on her by her family.

She showed versatility early. She could lick any kid in the block, won a marble tournament, and was first-place winner in a harmonica contest.

Montreal Stadium Nearing Reality

MONTREAL (CP) — The much-talked-of stadium for a giant sports centre in Montreal's east end became more of a reality Wednesday.

Councillor J. R. O'Brien, appointed by the city executive committee to study the project, said he and Lucien L'Allier, director of the department of public works, had agreed that a partly covered concrete stadium seating 50,000 to 55,000 would be most suitable for Montreal.

The initial undertaking would cost about $20,000,000. At additional cost of $2,000,000 seating capacity could be increased to 80,000.

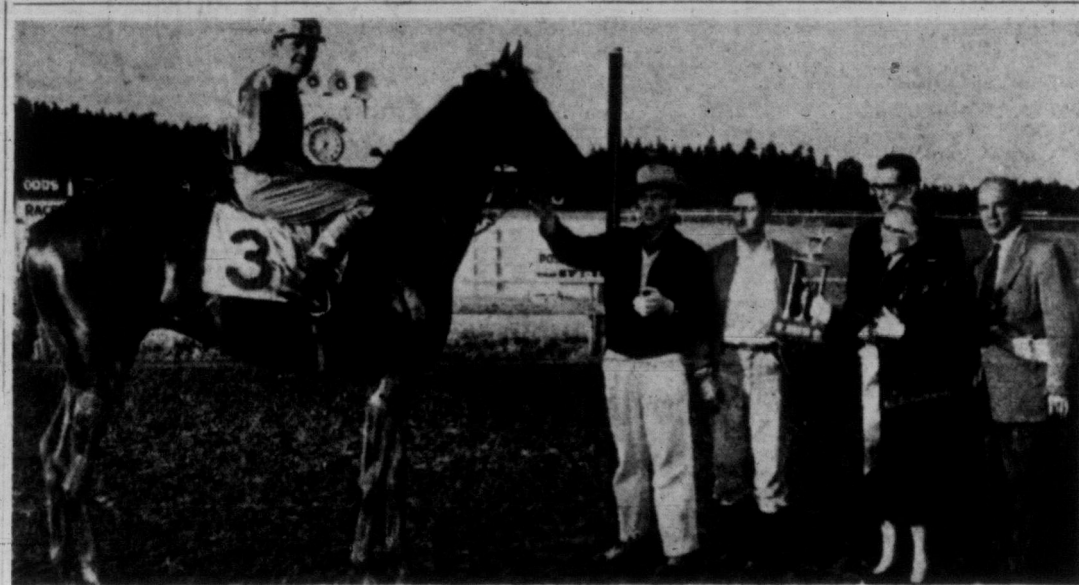

Bucky Harris Quits As Detroit Manager

DETROIT (AP) — Bucky Harris resigned today as manager of Detroit Tigers.

His resignation is effective at the end of the season, Sept. 30. The resignation ended the 59-year-old manager's second term at the Tiger helm.

Tiger president Walter O. Spike Briggs accepted the resignation immediately.

Harris mailed his resignation Sept. 5 while the Tigers were

Beau Sierra's Day And Sir Pylon's Too

Taking nothing away from Beau Sierra, it's probably a good thing that Sir Pylon wasn't entered in the featured Percy Fox Memorial at Sandown Park Wednesday.

Beau Sierra, a four-year-old brown colt, captured the Memorial event over a mile and 70 yards with a length and a half victory over Simonworth before a fair mid-week crowd.

However, in the preceding race, Sir Pylon, a seven-year-old California-bred gelding, amazed everyone with a ridiculously easy 10-length victory for the biggest payoff of the meet to date, $50.40.

But that wasn't the whole story. In winning, Sir Pylon, who on form didn't figure to do what he did, ran the mile and 70 yards in 1:47.1 a full second better than the time marked up by Beau Sierra.

There's an oft-proved theory in racing that a horse can be a $1,000 claimer on a fast track and a stake horse in the mud.

Sir Pylon added further testimony to this fact Wednesday. Beau Sierra, a late betting choice from the Lavender Stock Farm, was decorated by Mrs. Leslie Fox, daughter-in-law of the late well-known B.C. sportsman and racing official.

Sir Pylon is owned by M. Marler and was ridden by jockey Jim Prouty who made every post a winner. Gerald Yeutter

JOCKEYS INJURED IN CRASH

SPOKANE (BUP) — Two Canadian Playfair jockeys injured in an auto accident near Sandpoint, Idaho, yesterday afternoon today were reported to be off the critical list by a Sandpoint hospital.

Lloyd Cowie, 25, Foremost, Alta., suffered a shoulder fracture and William Marsh, 21, of Vancouver, fractured a knee.

A third jockey in the car, Arthur Stein of Calgary, escaped injury. Marsh and Cowie were thrown from Cowie's car when the vehicle went over an embankment on a curve in the highway near Sandpoint. Deputy sheriff Alfred Rense said Marsh was at the wheel.

Canucks Seek Jim McFadden

VANCOUVER (CP) — Art Chapman, manager and coach of the Western Hockey League's Vancouver Canucks, says he is dickering with Chicago general manager Tommy Ivan for the services of veteran scorer, Jim McFadden.

"The deal is just about completed," Chapman said Tuesday. The 34-year-old McFadden has played the last two years with Calgary Stampede of the WHL.

Colwood Golf Club professional Bill Court again will hold beginners' classes in golf for students this winter, beginning Oct. 2 and 4.

Students in the three-month course at Victoria High School will have a choice of either Tuesday or Thursday evenings. Two classes will be held each evening, from 7:15 to 8:15, and from 8:30 to 9:30.

Emil Takes It Easy

VIENNA (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Olympic champion runner, Emil Zatopek, has had to interrupt his heavy training program on doctors' orders, Radio Prague said Wednesday.

Zatopek, who was getting into shape for the Melbourne Olympics in Australia, recently underwent an operation. He now is permitted light exercise only.

Nanaimo Plans Gala Reception

NANAIMO 8, Peterborough 7
NANAIMO — A stormy, vocal welcome will go off with a bang at 5:15 p.m. Friday when Nanaimo welcomes home its terrific Timbermen, Mann Cup Dominion lacrosse champions for the first time.

That's when the T-Men disembark from the Vancouver ferry, having disposed of the Peterborough Trailermen in five games of the best-of-seven Canadian final in Toronto.

The T-Men will be welcomed with a noisy, horn-honking car parade from the ferry through the city and to a civic banquet and reception at a downtown hotel.

Timbermen wrapped it up Wednesday night at Maple Leaf Gardens with an 8-7 victory over the Trailermen, who were appearing in their seventh straight final.

Timbermen Came From Behind

Timbermen came from behind in championship fashion Wednesday night after Peterborough made a desperate attempt to grab an early lead in the game and stay alive in the series.

It was 3-1 for Peterborough after the first period, and it stayed that way through a scoreless second quarter.

In the third, brilliant Peterborough goalkeeper Moon Watson was suddenly found wanting on low hard shot down the middle, and the T-Men erupted with six goals to tie the Peters' one.

It was 7-4 entering the final, contentious period which saw the clock get out of hand briefly.

At 1:53 of the session, Don Sherry took a pass from Arnie Dugan and plunked in the winner.

Peterborough then started pressing and on a whistle for a face-off the clock kept moving. It was finally stopped after 25 seconds and the referees kept it motionless until they judged the 25 seconds had been made up.

Recovering from this temporary setback, the Peters made one last surge and scored two quick goals, the last with only one minute, 32 seconds to go, to bring the count to 8-7.

But they couldn't break through Nanaimo's fabulous Freddy Furla. In goal, and time and the series ran out.

Davies Most Valuable

Derry Davies, who received the Mike Kelly award as the most valuable player in the series, and Sherry scored two goals each for Timbermen, with singles going to Arnie Dugan, Don Ashbee, Lisle Scott and Victoria Shamrocks' Bill Bamford, a replacement.

Curly Mason scored three times for Peterborough, with two coming from Bobby Curtis and one each from Ross Powless and Lou Nickle.

For tall, lean Harry Wipper, playing coach of the T-Men, it was also a personal triumph. After four seasons with Peterborough, Wipper went to Nanaimo last season and in his coaching job took the championship.

Timbermen led all the way through the series. Starting with 15-13, 10-9 and 10-8 victories, they slipped temporarily and lost the fourth game, 14-7, before wrapping it up Wednesday.

Composite Scoring

Team scoring for the five games follows:

Nanaimo	G	A	P	Peterborough	G	A	P
1	14	10	12	1	14	10	12
2	10	9	8	2	10	9	8
3	10	9	8	3	10	9	8
4	14	7	11	4	14	7	11
5	10	9	8	5	10	9	8

Penalties: None.

MRS. MUNRO WINNER

Winner of the "A" division of the Victoria Golf Club par competition Tuesday was Mrs. J. Munro, who finished in regulation figures.

Leading "B" division was Mrs. J. Gillis with one-up, while Mrs. C. Wilson took "C" division honors with six-up.

SPIRITS HIGH — SO ARE KILBURN'S STANDARDS

Want To Be a Cougar? Start Sweating

NANAIMO — Berlyn Hodges, a pro baseball player in the summer and Victoria Cougars' trainer in the winter, has a theory that the fourth day of any training camp is the hardest.

Cougars' freshman coach Colin Kilburn also has a theory: that success comes only by hard work.

The two theories went hand in hand at Nanaimo's Civic Arena Wednesday as the fourth day of pre-season training was written away in a welter of sweat and wind sprints.

While it is still too early to rate the 1956 Cougar team on the basis of four days of twice-a-day workouts, it can be said quite safely that no team in the Western Hockey League is going to beat the Cougars on conditioning.

Kilburn, deadly serious in his approach to his new job, is a quietly-demanding taskmaster. His workouts are hard and sweat-producing. The players start their work-out with seemingly endless laps around the ice. They break off for shooting and puck-carrying practice, and then do more sprints and stops and starts. They go through light scrimmage followed by more wind sprints and end the workouts with more laps round the ice surface.

In addition to the unglamorous, hard work, Kilburn has initiated a couple of cute little stunts to drill the players on fundamentals.

During scrimmage, Kilburn will tell the wingers on one line to leave their sticks on the bench. Thus deprived the stickless players can do only one thing — check like leeches to make up for their deficiency.

And Kilburn wants a tight-checking club.

Another stunt finds the players grouped in a circle. One by one, each man peels off and carries the puck around the inside of the circle, calling out the name of every player he passes. To do this properly, he must keep his head and eyes up and not look down at the puck. Kilburn wants a club that will keep and control the puck.

The last trick, incidentally, was used by Lester Patrick with his New York Rangers 20 years ago and passed on to Kilburn by Patrick, who spent the day at camp Wednesday.

terday. The stick opened a 12-stroke gash in Carmichael's chin, broke three of his lower front teeth and cracked a small bone inside his mouth.

Carmichael was ordered to bed by a Nanaimo doctor and ordered to keep warm. Told by Kilburn that he would have the rest of the week and the weekend off, Carmichael argued in vain through his broken mouth that he would be on the ice today. It is not likely, however.

The official "Cougar Beef Chili" posted in the dressing room and compiled by Hodges, indicates that players reported to camp close to playing weight.

Defenceman Bill Dobbins is the heaviest man in camp at 194 but he is handling that weight easily. In fact, Kilburn says that his most serious weight problem is adding 10 pounds to the skinny frame of Doug Macauley, who checked in at an almost gaunt 140 pounds.

Macauley and Kilburn have been flanking Doug Anderson on a line that is intact from last year and another line of holdover players had Don Chiupka centring for Wayne Brown and Larry Leach. A third line, before Wednesday's workouts, had Hawarth pivoting Carmichael and Larry Berg.

Hawarth, normally a right-winger, is the brightest rookie in camp and shows class in everything he does. He has been slowed down slightly by a sore back muscle but is a near chin to stick with the club.

Here's Why You Should Dig Deep

By PETE MURRAY

Some time between next Monday and Oct. 27 you will be asked to donate to the Greater Victoria Community Chest 1956 campaign.

Why should you give?

The best answer lies in the records of the Chest's 19 member agencies.

Here are just a few examples of the work done, with the help of your dollars, in 1955:

—Assistance was given by the John Howard Society to 218 ex-prisoners, at least half of whom will become totally rehabilitated.

—More than 200 arthritics received a total of 3,924 treatments through the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society, a 75 per cent increase over the previous year.

—The SPCA investigated 239 complaints of cruelty, found new homes for 749 pets, and cared for 2,800 animals in its shelter.

—Nurses of the VON paid 22,023 visits to 3,110 patients needing care in their homes.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

—A happier Christmas was made for 262 children and 214 adults by the Christmas Bureau.

—Future security for 181 babies of unmarried mothers was planned by Family and Children's Service social workers.

—Emergency assistance and counselling was provided for 2,162 troubled families and individuals.

—The Fred Landsberg Sunshine Camp at Saseen accommodated 390 of the elderly, the blind, mothers and children who otherwise would have had no vacation.

—The Columbia Coast Mission hospital ship travelled 12,308 miles to give treatment to more than 800 persons in isolated settlements along the coast.

—Boy Scout activities under the direction of the Victoria District Council were enriched by a $9,000 Chest grant.

—Volunteers of the St. John

Ambulance Brigade in the course of 3,156 hours of service at parades, band concerts and other public functions treated more than 200 patients.

—Low-cost lodgings and recreation and training services were made available to many young people by the YMCA and YWCA.

These and many more worthwhile projects were accomplished last year by means of Community Chest funds.

They stand as good reason why you should dig deep when the Red Feather canvasser calls next month.

There is still more work to be done next year.

B.C. Polio Down 50%; More Shots Ready

With the height of the polio season just over, B.C. so far has recorded a 50 per cent drop in the number of cases from 1953.

Up to the end of last week, 60 cases of polio had been reported, compared with 138 cases last year, 134 cases in 1954 and 423 cases in 1953.

There have been three deaths from polio in B.C. this year, compared with two last year, six in 1954 and 26 in 1953.

Health Minister Eric Martin today described the figures as "most gratifying."

Dr. J. A. Taylor, deputy provincial health officer, explained a similar drop in polio incidence has been noted in the whole of Canada and cannot readily be explained. The disease occurs in cycles and health officials never know from one year to the next how badly it will strike.

The Salk vaccine inoculation program for school children is credited, however, with being a factor in this year's drop.

Delays in shipments of the vaccine from Eastern Canada laboratories curtailed the B.C. program this summer.

It was planned to give two shots to all school children in grades 1-9 before the fall term opened but there was only enough vaccine for one shot.

Second shots are starting to be administered in some districts now, Dr. Taylor said.

TRAFFIC FINES

Pleading guilty on two counts in city police court Wednesday, Robert H. George, R.R. 2, Sooke, was fined a total of $30 or six days. He was charged with being a minor in possession of liquor and driving a car without a licence. Both offences occurred Sept. 3.

Leslie Victor Eve, 20, Milnes Landing, also pleaded guilty to unlawful possession of liquor and was fined $15 or three days.

Charged Sept. 19 with careless driving, Lou Wing Yat, 534 Fisgard Street, reversed an earlier plea of "not guilty" in city police court Wednesday, and was fined $35 or five days.

His driver's licence will be suspended for one month except for business purposes.

Court was told Yat was in collision with another car when he returned from Johnson to Government Streets. Damage to both cars was $350.

Boy, 2, Shot to Death By 8-Year-Old Brother

QUESNEL.—A two-year-old boy was shot to death Wednesday when a 30-30 rifle his brother was playing with went off and the bullet struck him in the head from point-blank range.

John Handsor of Moose Heights, six miles north of Quesnel, was killed instantly by a bullet from a gun handled by his eight-year-old brother, Roy. Their father was outside the house saddling a horse preparatory to leaving on a hunting trip at the time. He told RCMP he thought the rifle was unloaded when he left it in the house with other hunting equipment.

RAPIST JAILED 7 YEARS

PRINCE RUPERT.—A 28-year-old aluminum plant worker was sentenced to seven years in prison here Wednesday for the rape of a 13-year-old Kitimat girl July 16.

Luigi de Toffoli, an Italian immigrant, was sentenced by Mr. Justice John G. Ruttan following a three-day trial. He heard the sentence through an interpreter.

JAILED ON DRUG CHARGE

VANCOUVER.—William McLarnin, 43, was sentenced Wednesday to two years in jail on a charge of being in possession of narcotics.

RCMP said McLarnin had a capsule of heroin in his hand when arrested Monday in a car on a Vancouver street. He was identified as a brother of the former world welterweight boxing champion, Jimmy McLarnin.

DRINKING AT GAME COSTLY

VANCOUVER.—Two football fans were fined $50 each Wednesday for drinking liquor at a game in Empire Stadium Sept. 8. Henry Nugent of Surrey and Edwin Hammersley of Cloverdale pleaded guilty to a charge of consuming liquor in a public place.

WILL NOT REDEEM SCHOOLS

COQUITLAM.—Maurice Lizee, chairman of the Roman Catholic school board here, said Wednesday the board has no intention of redeeming three church schools on which taxes of approximately $10,000 are due.

"Under no circumstances will we pay the taxes," he said. "I am told that on Sept. 30 the municipality can, under law, take title to the schools."

SHOOTS MOOSE, FINED

VERNON.—Farmer Torsuma Chiba was fined $200 and costs here Tuesday for shooting a bull moose out of season.

Chiba pleaded guilty and told Magistrate E. W. Prowse the moose was wandering around the Bella Vista farm district one mile west of here when he killed it.

AUDITORIUM BOOSTED

VANCOUVER.—The Vancouver technical planning board recommended Wednesday the construction of a combined downtown convention hall and sports arena even though it feels one city's board of administration will also be needed at the Pacific National Exhibition grounds.

City-Saanich Hall Discussions Friday

Representatives of Victoria and Saanich councils will meet Friday at 10 a.m. at City Hall for further discussions regarding construction of a joint municipal hall.

The group will hear two proposals for a site. One has been submitted by the Capital Region Planning Board and the other by Mayor Percy Scourrah.

Early estimates of cost for the building, which would probably have a wing for each municipality, have been as high as $2,000,000.

LEGIONNAIRES HONORED AT ESQUIMALT

Esquimalt legionnaires presented a past president's medal to John Radley, and 25-year service badges to G. S. W. Nicholson and Fred Fry, at a meeting in Admirals Road Hall Wednesday night.

Attending were John Hunt of the White Rock branch, Peter Cairns of the Britannia branch and James Mayzes and Walter Fish of the Pro Patria group.

Toronto Offers to Assist City In Building Marilyn Bell Cairn

Victoria council is expected to accept an offer by the city of Toronto to assist in the construction of a cairn here commemorating the record Juan de Fuca Strait crossing by Marilyn Bell last month.

The offer was made Wednesday and was described by Ald. W. F. Pinfold as "very generous."

However, no decision has yet been reached by city council on the form of construction or site.

An earlier offer by the Canadian Association of Memorial Craftsmen to provide a granite, inscribed plaque, has been accepted by the city.

The plaque's inscription will read: "This cairn commemorates the feat of Miss Marilyn Bell who landed in this bay on Aug. 23, 1956, to become the first woman and the first Canadian to swim the Strait of Juan de Fuca from Port Angeles, U.S.A., to Victoria."

BETWEEN TIMES By MONTE ROBERTS

An urgent despatch has just reached this desk from, of all places, New York.

The despatch is from H. D. Quigg, one of the brighter members of the United Press bureau, and announces that this is dog week in New York.

Mr. Quigg says dogs, just like people, have neuroses which are apt to act up and give them a bad time. I can well understand a dog who lives in New York having neuroses.

In fact, even a visit to New York is enough to make a neurotic out of the most even-tempered, easy going dog. Nevertheless, it is encouraging to learn the Big Town can't come long enough to have a dog week.

And I do hope all the dog owners in New York will take Mr. Quigg's advice, viz.: If the dog in your house has a hang-dog look, stretch him out on the couch and give him a psychiatric going-over.

Let him wail about his troubles, says Mr. Quigg, because it is a well-known fact doggies can suffer from all sorts of mental ills, including inferiority complexes.

The best way to help out a neurotic dog, says Mr. Quigg, is to build up his ego.

"Tell him what great people dogs really are," says Mr. Quigg. "If your dog walks around wearing a hang-dog look, say something chipper, such as 'you look as if you feel sick as a parakeet'." Then lead him over to the dictionary, which you have previously dog eared at the appropriate page, and show him how important dogs are to the English language.

Show him, says Mr. Quigg, the definition of dog which says "a sportive or rascally fellow—as, a sly dog."

Remind him, says Quigg, that big men in government have evoked such concepts as hound-tooth, clean and bird-dog industries.

Ask him if he knows he has a season, a celestial body, poetry, and a drink named after him—namely dog days, the dog star, doggerel, and a dog's nose.

Ask him, says Mr. Quigg, to recall what kind of courage the hero has—dogged, of course. And what is the champ known as? Top dog. What do people do when they live high? Put on the dog, or join the doggy set.

And, finally, point out that the expression of greatest joy is none other than hot diggity dog.

Mr. Quigg feels that the treatment outlined above will make a new dog of him.

Of course, what it will do to YOU is something else again. But you can always whistle for your own psychiatrist if you feel mentally dog-tired.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

Attempted entry of Tip Top Tailors shop at 618 Yates over-night Tuesday was reported to police Wednesday. Glass panes were removed from two skylights at the rear of the building, but apparently there was no access made.

Chairman of the B.C. Centennial Committee, L. J. Wallace, will address the Union of B.C. Municipalities Convention at Penticton next Wednesday. His subject will be "A Century to Celebrate." He will report on the accomplishments of his committee so far in arranging the Centennial celebration in 1958.

All government offices will be closed Monday, Oct. 8, for the Thanksgiving day holiday. The Legislative Buildings will also be closed, but the Provincial Museum will be open to the public from 9 to 5 p.m.

Named to the executive of the Oak Bay Playgrounds Association Wednesday were C. T. Overman, president; W. Rochford, vice-president; Mrs. H. Craig, secretary; Mrs. R. A. Robinson, treasurer, and Mrs. K. C. Murphy, publicity. Plans were made for the 1957 playground season.

Loss of $500 in registered government bonds was reported to police Wednesday afternoon, four days after the bonds were believed to have been lost.

Mrs. Arthur Quail, 2652 Asquith, told police five $100 bonds were missing, each registered in the name of Christine Robertson. She thinks they were lost in the downtown area.

These bonds are non-negotiable and cannot be transferred without the signature of the person to whom they are registered.

Dr. G. Wright To Be Buried At Vancouver

Well-known general practitioner in Victoria and district, Dr. George Ainsley Wright, 692 Goldstream Road, died at St. Joseph's Hospital Wednesday at the age of 82.

Resident here since 1945, Dr. Wright is survived by his wife, Violet; brother, Dr. William L. Wright; Robson, B.C., and nephews and nieces in Canada and the U.S.

He was predeceased by a daughter, Marion Elizabeth, in 1941.

Graduate of McGill University in 1904, Dr. Wright began his medical career as a country doctor in New Brunswick. He has practiced in Saskatoon, North Dakota, and Burma, where he served during the First World War.

He was a member of several clubs, including Capital City No. 61, Knights of Pythias; Tel El Mahuta No. 155, Order of the Shrine, and the Dramatic Order of the Knights of Chorrassin in the Shrine.

Member of Wawa Temple, A.O.N.M., in Regina, he also was an associated member of the Victoria Shrine Club.

RCMP Car Mishap Brings Crown Suit

Couple Charge Policeman Drove in 'Dangerous Manner'

A young married couple from Alberni sued the Crown for unstated damages in Exchequer Court today for injuries they suffered when they were allegedly struck by a Royal Canadian Mounted Police car last December.

The accident occurred at Bear Creek, near Alberni. Jack and Dorothy Dumoulin claimed that the car driven by R. C. Thorpe, a member of the RCMP, was travelling in a dangerous manner.

The alleged car was travelling at too fast a speed and the driver failed to blow his horn.

Mr. Justice A. Thurlow of Ottawa is hearing the case. P. J. Sinnott is representing the plaintiffs, while George Gregory is counsel for the Crown.

The second 30-day jail sentence for Hansen in two days, and they will be served non-concurrently.

In Saanich court Wednesday, Hansen was fined $50 and $350 costs or 30 days, on a charge of consuming liquor in public. He indicated he would serve the time.

Frank Snopek, 1517 Hillside, told the court he was accosted on a Yates street parking lot by "four or five guys" who asked him his name, which he told them.

The next thing I knew I was knocked against a brick wall and hit my head. I lost consciousness," he said.

Snopek received a cut on the forehead which resulted in infection, he said.

NO EXPLANATION. "I didn't hit him hard enough to cause any injury," Hansen told Magistrate H. C. Hall.

He offered no explanation for the assault.

Character witness for Hansen, George Ernest Winter, 2634 Arbutus, former employer of the accused, told the court he had known Hansen 10 or 11 years.

"He was a little foolish at times; like any other kid between 17 and 19. He can't be told anything," said the witness.

Eighty resolutions to be considered include a request that the provincial government set wages in line with those in business and industry. One asks that a minimum wage of $250 a month be established in government service. The present minimum range is from $138 to $173 a month.

Mayor Fred Hume of Vancouver has been invited to open the convention. Invitations also have been sent to Premier Bennett and members of his cabinet.

Resolutions dealing with proposed requests for wage increases and other concessions will be discussed at the 13th annual convention at Vancouver Oct. 5-6 of the B.C. Government Employees' Association.

Ninety delegates, representing 16 association branches and 10,000 government employees throughout the province, are expected to attend.

Cy Peck's Death Recalls Heroism

Courageous Colonel 'Pride of Scottish'

Col. Cyrus W. Peck, only man in the British Empire to win the Victoria Cross in the First World War while a member of Parliament, and a widely-known figure, died today in Resthaven Hospital, Sidney, today. He was 85.

Col. Peck has been in ill health for some time and suffered a stroke Sept. 18.

His death came just three months after he journeyed to London to attend centennial celebrations of the Victoria Cross.

Members of his family reported he had a "wonderful time" at the reunion with friends and former war-time comrades.

A special memorial service for Col. Peck will be held by the Canadian Scottish tonight at 9 at Bay Street Armouries.

For a time it appeared doubtful that Col. Peck would be able to make the arduous journey because of his health.

Besides his widow, at the family home in Sidney, Col. Peck is survived by three sons, Douglas, Edward and Lt. Col. Joe Peck of Vancouver.

Private Funeral; No Flowers

Funeral services will be private and the family has requested that no flowers be sent.

Besides the VC, Col. Peck was awarded the DSO and Bar and was mentioned in dispatches five times during the First World War.

Born in New Brunswick, Col. Peck lived in British Columbia from his youth.

He pioneered in the Klondike and was in business in Prince Rupert when the war broke out in 1914. He went overseas as a major in the 30th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

But his name is virtually synonymous with the 16th Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment. He joined the unit in May, 1915, and became its commander.

He was defeated in the 1921 general election. Later he was successful as a Conservative in the provincial field. He represented The Island in the B.C. legislature from 1924 to 1933.

In 1936 he was appointed to the Canadian Pensions Commission, and served on it for five years.

He continued to take an active interest in public affairs during the years of his retirement.

Col. Peck won the Victoria Cross during the fighting at the Drocourt-Queant line, east of Arras, in September of 1918.

Part of his battalion was held up near the village of Cagnicourt and in imminent peril from machine gun fire. Col. Peck was with the group. He had gone over the top with the first wave of the attack.

Regardless of danger, Col. Peck went in search of help. Through a rain of point-blank fire he made his way to a tank rumbling in the rear.

Still a conspicuous target for German bullets, he walked in front of the tank and pointed out one by one the enemy strong points. Reorganizing his unit, Col. Peck led his men in a final assault which overran the German positions.

Col. Peck's resignation from the B.C. legislature in 1936 to take the pensions' post, he was paid high tribute from both sides of the House.

He was known as a man with blunt, outspoken expression, who knew what he wanted and was not afraid to say it in the face of friends or foes.

Will Dispute Involves RC Diocese

Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane today stood over a Supreme Court hearing to interpret the meaning of the will of the late John William Delaney of Victoria, who instructed that half of his $62,395 estate be divided between Roman Catholic Bishop Hill of Victoria and the RC Archdiocese of Winnipeg.

The remainder of the estate is to be divided among relatives of Mr. Delaney. Mr. Delaney died last October.

The hearing will be heard at a date to be set by the Supreme Court Registrar.

Seeking to upset a portion of the will is Mrs. Josephine Ryan of St. Phil, Minn., a relative of Mr. Delaney. She received a $10,000 legacy from the estate and is now claiming the bequest made to the Winnipeg diocese.

She is not contesting the bequest made to Bishop Hill, who received instructions that the money be used for charitable work.

Mrs. Ryan is contesting the will on a legal point. She is claiming that the bequest made to the Winnipeg diocese is void because it is not specific enough to come under the legal term of a "charitable" bequest.

Should she win her point, that portion of the estate would be transferred to her.

Travel Agents Choose Victoria

North America's most influential group of transportation executives will hold its annual convention in Victoria next year.

In Honolulu, where they are meeting this year, the American Association of Travel Agents today voted unanimously to convene here in 1957.

City council, chamber of commerce, tourist bureau and local transportation men have worked actively to bring the group here.

More than 400 travel bureaus in the United States and Canada are represented. The bureaus arrange itineraries for millions of tourists.

which occur in our own bodies. I am thinking today of the nervous system. The nervous system governs the body. It controls both the voluntary and involuntary muscles and guides many vital processes such as respiration, circulation, digestion, and others. It is also responsible for our thoughts.

The central nervous system consists of our brain and our spinal cord. The peripheral nervous system is made up of 12 pairs of nerves originating in the brain, 31 pairs of nerves coming from the spinal cord, plus the nerves which go to the internal organs and the blood vessels.

In a recent article in the magazine, "Today's Health," J. D. Ratcliff wrote, "But for our magnificent nervous system we would be a chaotic mass of individual cells, each cell going its own way, independent of the others."

When mentioning the fact that we take our nervous systems for granted he said, "Millions of messages pour through its billions of cells, telling the heart when to beat, glands when to secrete, lungs when to suck in air."

This gives us just a glimpse of how crucially important our nervous system is to us, of how it controls our actions, the working of our bodies, our health, and even our success and happiness.

Many diseases and disabilities arise from injuries to the nervous system. These usually are due to actual injury of the nerve or nerves, to infection, systemic diseases or deficiency states. For instance, pernicious anemia may have resulting unhappy effects on the nerves.

Deficiency states can come from tensions and strains, poor nutrition and infections. A chronic state of anxiety can have far reaching effects on health because it can change body chemistry and glandular performance.

Take care of your nervous system with a splendid health routine, with mental discipline and a happy outlook.

Pin Money Bank Collects Change for a 'Rainy Day'

By PENNY SAVER

I have a piggy bank that hoards my silver for days when finances are low. The only thing is, though, that piggy bank robbing, whether it's justified or not, always gives me a twinge of conscience—I know that I've put the money there so that I'll have it when I need it, but when I take it out I always feel that it should be done furtively, and away from others' knowledge. To ease my conscience, I've changed the method of saving. Instead of piggy, which looks soulfully at me each time I approach, I'm putting my pennies in a "pin money" bank that is a delicate pink change purse trimmed with gold and flowers. This china bank has "Pin Money" written on the side, so that all who see me shaking coins from it know that I'm removing money that's meant to be removed. For some strange reason it makes me feel better, too.

If you've ever had the same feeling, you'll invest in one of these attractive novelty banks, too. They're $1.50.

Slightly derogatory as far as tastes of some people is the cheese dish that I saw and liked in a downtown store. Not an ordinary cheese dish this, for on the lid is a pert little skunk, and below is written "For Stinky Cheese." I agree that strong cheese should be kept in a special dish, and there'll be no confusing the dishes with this one around. A clever gift for a friend who likes Danish blue, and other odiferous types, it costs $1.95.

Brass door knockers in many sizes and designs are always in demand here, it seems, and a gift shop has stocked up on them to meet the demand. Small ones, priced at $1, come shaped as swans, Buddhas, and larger ones, in shapes of foxes' heads are $1.50. A Scotsman with bagpipes costs $2.95, and an imposing lion's head is $7.95. Ships and various other attractive knockers are $3.95.

A novelty decanter is the pottery book that's labelled "Concise Dictionary" with a sub-title, "Bright Spirit." Made in Germany, it has a cork top, and the decanter itself is the same general size as a book with the same binding. It's the perfect gift for him, and it's priced at $3.

Call me at 2-3131 and I'll tell you where to find any of the items mentioned here in the column today or during the past weeks.

CHEWY ALMOND SQUARES

Half cup unblanched almonds, 1 cup sweetened condensed milk, 2 cups crumbled graham crackers, ½ teaspoon vanilla, few drops almond extract. Chop almonds. Mix condensed milk and crumbled crackers, almonds and flavorings. Line greased baking pan (8x8 inches) with waxed paper, grease again and turn in graham cracker mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Remove paper and cut into squares while still warm. Makes 16 (2-inch) squares.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. George Muir of Broughty Ferry, Scotland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Georgia Margaret of Victoria, to Mr. William M. Jesney, Victoria, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jesney, Bonnyville, Alta. The wedding will take place October 20 at 7:30 p.m. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, with Dr. J. L. W. McLean officiating. Miss Muir has asked her cousin, Miss Dorothy Scott, and Miss Margaret Brand, both of Vancouver, to be her attendants. Her flower girl will be little Helen Louise MacWhinnie of Victoria.

Party and Presentation

Mrs. Robert Lytle was guest of honor at a party held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Gibson, Sooke. Mrs. Lytle, who was superintendent of the Sunday school at Knox Presbyterian Church until the recent retirement of her husband, Rev. Robert Lytle, received a silver tray from the guests. Barry West made the presentation on behalf of the Sunday school teachers. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Wray, Mrs. C. H. Radford, Mrs. Ken Shepherd, Mrs. J. Yost, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. Ira Butler, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. R. Kendrew, Miss Gould, Miss K. Welsh, Barry West and John Van Ek.

Tofino News

Mr. Gordon Barrie, fisheries inspector, with Mrs. Barrie and their daughter Miss Marjory Barrie, are now in Tofino where they will make their future home. Formerly they lived in Victoria.

In Honor of the Bride

Mrs. J. Larson and Mrs. D. Agate entertained at the Fifth Street home of the former for Miss Peggy Tucker. Kitchen and grocery gifts were concealed in a mauve and green container. A corsage of pink roses was presented to the bride-elect, while her mother, Mrs. J. Tucker, received yellow roses.

Mrs. A. McLeod assisted in serving, and Miss Lynne Larson and Miss Nora Tucker presented the gifts. Other guests were Mrs. R. Larson, Mrs. F. Polson, Mrs. J. Strong, Mrs. H. Simpson, Mrs. M. Johnson, Mrs. R. Polson, Mrs. R. Strong, Mrs. C. Pace, Mrs. P. Aranson, Mrs. R. Griswold, Mrs. A. Lezette, Mrs. D. Imrie, Misses Sharon Polson and R. McKinty.

Miss Joanne Galt entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Callander to honor Miss Callander, a Saturday evening bride-elect. A mauve decorated container swathed in net held the miscellaneous gifts. Guests were Mrs. A. Jones, Mrs. M. Scott, Mrs. A. Stevenson, Mrs. J. Ingles, Mrs. F. Callander, Mrs. C. Callander, Mrs. E. Callander, Mrs. W. Webster, Mrs. J. Galt, Mrs. J. Gibb, Mrs. M. Home From Commonwealth Youth Tour

By KITTY DIXON

A maroon blazer crested with Canada, a grey pleated skirt, white blouse with coronation tie and a navy ten have been put aside for saddle shoes and skirts and sweaters now that 17-year-old Wendy Sanderson is back at school.

She'll never wear the uniform again, for it was specially made to take her to Great Britain with the Commonwealth Youth Movement—and now the tour is over.

School activities, sailing and service work with the Land Rangers have quickly monopolized Wendy's activities after just one week at home.

It was through the Land Rangers, a senior division of the Canadian Girl Guides, that Wendy went to Europe as a representative of all Canadian Guides.

The tour was more than a mere sightseeing expedition to the 76 young people from all parts of the Commonwealth—it was a glimpse into the British way of life.

"I'm glad we were billeted in homes of the countries we visited," said Wendy, "because we came to know the people personally, and learned more about their thinking and customs than we could have by staying in hotels."

Included in the group were 12 Africans and four Cypriots. Chaperones for the Canadian tour members were Mr. and Mrs. G. Brandreth of Vancouver. Major Fred J. Ney, who is well known in Victoria, met the Youth Movement in London and acted as honorary organizer during the tour.

Although the tour embraced cities in England, Scotland and Wales, it was London that held most interest for Wendy—and she admits the musical shows, "Pajama Game," "Plain and Fancy" and "Kismet" influenced her choice. More exciting things began to happen when the tour of Great Britain ended. Wendy and six other Canadian members wanted to see part of the Continent, so a chaperone was arranged, and they flew to Spain and Gibraltar for an extra week, stopping in Paris en route.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sanderson, 2578 McDonald Drive, is in her final year at Oak Bay High School, with her sights set on an arts course at Victoria College and University of British Columbia.

She feels her trip to Europe has been of great benefit to her education, and the Youth Movement is making great strides towards its goal, "to unite the youth of the Commonwealth."

In Honor of the Bride

Mrs. F. Polson, 5024 Patricia Bay Highway, entertained at her home Tuesday evening with a miscellaneous party to honor bride-elect Miss Peggy Tucker, who will be married this Friday.

Red roses in corsage were presented to the guest of honor, while her mother, Mrs. J. Tucker, and the groom's cousin, Mrs. J. Larsen, received corsages of pastel asters. Guests were Mrs. F. Jenkins, Mrs. S. Jenkins, Mrs. W. F. Jenkins, Mrs. E. H. Polson, Mrs. R. Polson, Mrs. M. Polson, Mrs. F. Morgan, Mrs. F. Butler, Mrs. M. Collins, Mrs. W. Blaauw, Mrs. D. Agate, Misses Sharon Polson, Joyce Bowker, Judy Gould, Frances Minter and Margaret Minter.

Members of the accounting division of the Provincial Health and Welfare Department were guests at a kitchen shower recently held for Miss Margaret Callander. Miss Pat Abrey, Balmoral Road, was hostess. A corsage of white carnations was presented to the guest of honor and her mother, Mrs. T. Callander, received two carnations. Other guests were Mrs. A. Goddard, Mrs. R. Clark, Mrs. M. Raymond, Mrs. Abrey, Mrs. M. Johnson, Misses M. Matthews, M. Owens, E. Naylor, Mary Smith and Diana Groves.

A shower honoring Mrs. B. W. A. Trumble, the former Miss Joan Crawford, was given at the home of Mrs. Patricia Leonard. Upon arrival the honor guest received a corsage of red roses, and her mother, Mrs. M. Crawford, and mother-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Trumble, received corsages of carnations. Miss Georgina Leonard presented the gifts to the honor guest from a decorated wishing well. Guests included Mrs. S. Rose, Mrs. J. Burton, Mrs. V. Forest, Mrs. P.

BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES

By FREEMAN KING

District Notes: The quarterly meeting of the Victoria District Council will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at 1034 Johnson Street. All groups are asked to have representatives at the meeting.

Dunsmuir Troop held an outdoor expedition which included practice of the "Scouts pace." Tree identification was practiced, and an "incident" took place while on the jaunt. They found a "beachcomber" who was suffering from a sprained ankle and exposure. A fire was lit, hot drink provided and the injury taken care of. A camp fire completed the evening's project. Scouters Harold Harrison and Al Rands are the leaders of this troop.

Third Victoria Group: The Cub pack spent a short weekend holiday at the home of Akela Winnie Bennett's home at Ardmore Drive, Sidney. Hikes, rambles, treasure hunts and outdoor compass games were run off. "Baloo" Cathy Sinclair assisted. Transportation was provided by members of the group committee.

On Friday evening the troop carried out extensive semaphore practice. A number of skill stunts and games were held.

ask Andy

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Andy sends a complete, 15-volume set of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia to Carolyn Tucker, aged nine, Wichita, Kansas, for her question:

How Do You Take Good Care of a Goldfish?

The round goldfish bowl is going out of fashion. That's good, because it was never the most suitable home for a pretty goldfish. What's more, the round glass sides distort our view of him. Such a handsome creature deserves not only comfort, but a home in which he can be properly admired.

The best home for a goldfish is an oblong glass tank. This gives plenty of surface where the water can come in contact with the air. Keep the aquarium in a bright, but not too sunny, spot. Estimate Goldie's length, minus his tail. Allow one gallon of water for every inch of fish. Of course, like you or I, Goldie would rather share his home with a companion than live alone.

The home can be just plain water, but a balanced aquarium is better, more beautiful and more fun for you and the fish. A tank of plain water must be changed every day or so. For the water becomes stale as the fish breathes up the oxygen. Lift him out gently in a net and while you change the water in his tank. Never touch him with your fingers. You may bruise him and skuff the filmy coating over his scales. Some people use a pump to bubble fresh air into the aquarium. In this case, the water is only changed to clean the tank.

A balanced aquarium need not be changed at all. This is the ideal home for Goldie and also a beautiful decoration for your home. For a few pennies and a little trouble you can fix up a fascinating balanced aquarium yourself. Cover the floor of the empty tank with an inch of good soil. Surface the soil with sand or gravel and maybe a few colored pebbles. Use your pennies to buy several varieties of waterweeds at the pet shop. Plant them in the soil and arrange them gracefully as you gently fill the tank with water. Add a few water snails and let the new aquarium settle for a few days. Goldie will love it—so will everyone else.

The waterweeds breathe in carbon dioxide and breathe out carbon dioxide. This provides a balanced diet of air in the water for both plants and fish. The snails are the garbage men.

They eat up the waste materials and the green algae plants that fog the water and cloud the glass walls. If your fish comes to the surface, he may be gasping for more air. Change the water and put in more waterweeds.

Feed Goldie only once a day and always at the same time. He needs a varied diet, so keep different packages of fish food on hand. Also, from time to time give him a little chopped egg, liver, a fly or a bit of worm. Never let him eat longer than five minutes at a time. Then remove the crumbs from his water. Most goldfish perish from overfeeding or underhousing.

Every goldfish is beautiful, whether he is the plain or fancy variety. He is sure to be fascinating to watch, especially in a fancy, balanced aquarium. In time, he gets to know you. Never startle him with a flashing light or loud bangs on his glass walls. Just tap the glass gently before feeding time. He will soon learn to come swimming towards you.

MOVIE WORLD

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — On stage, Offstage and Upstage: Bob Hope and Katharine Hepburn may or may not have co-starred while costarring in "The Iron Petticoat" in England — he's Mr. Clam on the reported "feud" — but he's running out of breath praising her as an actress.

Living it up in top hat and tails as New York Mayor Jimmy Walker in "Beau James," Hope told me: "Katharine Hepburn is the greatest living actress today. So what if she didn't get along with the English press when we were making the film? I guess they asked her too many silly questions. But when she failed to show up at a press cocktail party in London, I spent two hours defending her. I admire that gal for being herself."

Bob isn't the only star in top hat these days. There's Gary Cooper in high lid, white tie and tails with Audrey Hepburn in "Love in the Afternoon," a romantic comedy. Before the cameras in Paris. But they can't knock the west out of Mr. Yup. When he modeled a size too small top hat for director Billy Wilder, Cooper tried to squeeze it lower down on his head, muttering:

"A mite snug in the saddle, isn't it, Billy?"

Teresa Wright, who abandoned movies two years ago for TV, claims she was "teased" into picking up the script of Paramount's "The Search for Bridey Murphy" and playing Bridey. Let's hope this doesn't start a fad of casting by script tease.

THE WITNET: Can't Elvis Presley's role of a guitar-playing cowboy in "The Reno Brothers" be called: "Roy Rogers with the D. T.'s?"

(A) "LISBON" (Dominion) — Highlighted by superb, wide-screen photography, Columbia's adventure drama "Lisbon" provides excellent film fare for those seeking vicarious thrill and romance.

Ray Milland, who also directed the picture, displays such personality as the gentleman adventurer and smuggler that it is not inconceivable that his charm should have the two ladies ready for fun and games at his pleasure.

FIRST OF THESE is Maureen O'Hara, who journeys to Lisbon with the intent of paying citizen-of-the-world, and smuggler-on-the-grand-scale Claude Rains a whopping sum of money to rescue her aged husband from behind the Iron Curtain. However, she doesn't worry about hubby quite so much after she meets Milland, who has been sent by Rains to act as intermediary and collect the cash.

SECOND LADY to succumb to the Milland charm is French actress Yvonne Furneaux. During a sumptuous dinner party given by Rains, Yvonne tells Milland that Rains is plotting his death. Lurking behind all corners is Francis Lederer, Rains' trigger-man. When he catches Milland gently smooching his best gal Yvonne it is obvious who his target for the night will be.

IF THE DIRECTING SKILL had been less capable, if the actors and actresses had been less believable in their roles, "Lisbon" would have emerged as just one more cops and robbers drama with an international setting. But as it stands it should interest all but the most sophisticated. Rains, in particular, is good as the suave, art-loving, beauty-worshipping sixth generation thief who could smile in gentle admiration at the abstract art created by blood slowly spreading over a stiff-white shirt front.

Huge New Airliner For CPA Reaches Vancouver Sunday
VANCOUVER — Canadian Pacific Airlines will receive delivery of a new $1,500,000 Super DC-6B Empress airliner at Vancouver International Airport Sunday.

Two Vancouver pilots, CPA Captains Lew Elliot and Roy McHaffie will ferry the huge aircraft from the Douglas Aircraft Company's plant at Santa Monica, Calif., to CPA's main base at Vancouver.

BEST BROWN BETTY

6 apples, quartered
1 cup water
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup butter
10 single Graham crackers, crushed
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
3 tbsps. chopped nuts
Pare, core and quarter apples. Place in pan with water and 1/2 cup brown sugar. Cook until almost tender. Pour into shallow pan. Sprinkle with cinnamon, 1/2 cup brown sugar, lemon rind, nuts and cracker crumbs. Dot with butter. Bake 375 deg. F. for 20 to 30 minutes. Serve warm or cold, with or without cream. 6 servings.

APPLE BATTER PUDDING

5 to 6 large apples, pared, cored and sliced thin
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
1 egg
1 1/4 cup sifted, all-purpose flour
3 tbsps. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup milk
Cream butter and sugar. Add beaten eggs. Sift dry ingredients. Add alternately with milk to make a soft batter. Place sliced apples into greased baking dish, filling dish almost full. Sprinkle with cinnamon or nutmeg. Pour batter over apples. Bake in moderate oven, 350 deg. F. for 40 minutes. Serve with lemon sauce. 6 servings.

JULIA'S APPLESAUCE CAKE

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg, well-beaten
1 cup thick unsweetened applesauce
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 teaspoon vanilla
Sift dry ingredients. Cream shortening and sugar. Add well-beaten egg. Add applesauce alternately with dry ingredients to creamed mixture. Add nuts and vanilla. Place in 2 1/2-inch greased pans or large loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350 deg. F., for 35 minutes (for square pans) and 45 to 50 minutes (for loaf pan) or until done. Cool 10 minutes. Turn out on cake rack. Ice with favorite frosting.

ASTROLOGICAL FORECAST
FRIDAY, SEPT. 28, 1956

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)
Whatever type of work, will bring you greater career with your co-workers, usual associates and/or members of your own family can be productive of excellent results today. Pitch in and finish files, letters, sales, cleaning, chores.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)
Now you have one of those days when you do those errands, get in supplies, communicate with others, state your aims, get your personal charm at a new attractiveness, find pleasures and other things you like. Entertain and be happy p.m.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)
Financial interests of all kinds are yours today. See that you get the active co-operation of those at your residence. Then there is no later criticism and you have channels for added income, revenue that are very worthwhile.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21)
This your day to get out in the world of action. You find you have clever ideas and can see all details in their right perspective. Fine day for starting some new venture on a small beginning that can be made big and important.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21)
Behind-the-scenes action is very powerful today. It is along practical avenues however. Get every single detail of money, property, income, and outlays as you would like them to be in the future. P.M. fine for long-time pleasures, enjoyed even more.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22)
Now you have a day to go after the biggest hopes and wishes, desires and aims that you can envision. Make sure you get co-operation of friends who have rounded picture or experience in these matters. Then success quickly ensues.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
Worldly interests of all kinds are especially important today. You are able to contact those officials, executives, authorities, higher-ups who can privately extend you the data or support you need. What's best then happens. Be alert.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
Wonderful chance present for you to get off to some attractive or worthwhile site with good friends. There, you can gain data you need or can sit down and talk over, and over, your mutual ambitions. Put at once into effect, too.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
Be just as worldly as you wish. Contact that person in power. Diagram and blueprint for high just what you want in the future, your deepest aims and you find real understanding. However, you have to start smaller than you expect, which is OK.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
Getting off to an attractive meeting place with as many associates as you can contact and making arrangements brings growth and development to your biggest longings. Show others you have their welfare at heart. You then win.

BRITAIN REFUSES TO EASE CURBS ON STERLING
WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain disappointed the 60-nation annual conference of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank Wednesday by ruling out any early move to make the pound sterling fully exchangeable in world trade payments.

Harold Macmillan, chancellor of the exchequer, told the fund's board of governors "the broad general policy of the United Kingdom remains unchanged."

The fund's hope of achieving an unrestricted exchange of currencies, in the interest of freer and broader world trade, has come to depend largely on sterling.

RISK TOO GREAT
Most other countries which cling to their wartime and post-war restrictions on foreign exchange consider it too risky to take the plunge into full convertibility while Britain maintains her restraints.

Experts Say Europe To Need 50% More Oil
PARIS (Reuters) — Europe's oil consumption in 1960 will be 50 per cent more than in 1955 and could double between 1960 and 1975, according to a report issued Wednesday by the oil committee of the Organization for European Co-operation. The report was completed before the Suez crisis and assumed an ample and uninterrupted availability of Middle East oil.

The Toronto market struggled through the afternoon to retain a slim advance. With the exception of western oils, which were ahead 1½ points on their index, the market showed little change.

At New York many earlier gains were erased in afternoon trading. Some aluminum lost their advances but oils remained generally ahead. Steels were mixed. Motors were mostly unchanged except for Ford which dipped a fraction.

AT TORONTO western oils drew the most interest. Calgary and Edmonton, one of the high-priced issues, gained ½. Central Leduc was ahead 20 cents. Triad and Trans Empire 15 cents. Security, not an index stock, added 20 cents. Peace River was down 25 cents and National Petroleum and Canada Oil Lands 15 cents.

Papers and steels showed a wide majority of gains compared with losses among the industrial section. Great Lakes Paper added 1½ points. Canadian Westinghouse, International Paper, Algoma and Stelco recorded gains of between one and two points. Canada Cement, Imperial Bank and Canadian Ingersoll-Rand lost a point.

AT NEW YORK—Alcoa held a gain of a point or better but Aluminum Ltd. lost its earlier rise and slipped fractionally. Kaiser Aluminum was off a point. Canadian Pacific was up ½. Hudson Bay Mining up ½ and Walker-Gooderham was ½ higher.

AT MONTREAL—Industrial stocks hung on to narrow gains posted earlier in the session today in afternoon trading. Price movements were generally confined to fractions.

AT LONDON there was reluctance on the part of investors to sell on the stock market today. With small selective buying, prices were fairly well maintained.

Gains predominated in industrial. Imperial Chemicals were steady in front of today's interim statement. Electrical equipments were brighter after their recent falls. Bank shares were firm.

British funds were quiet and unchanged but dollar stocks were firmer following the Wall Street rally Wednesday.

Oil shares were higher but the best prices were not always held. Kaffins were easier but coppers improved.

AT VANCOUVER a quiet market saw some trading in oils. Giant Mascot moved 16-600 shares ranging from 45 to 49. American Standard sold 10,700 at 30.

$ EXCHANGE

VICTORIA—Banks buying U.S. cheques 1½ per cent discount. Cash at 2½ per cent. Silver at 3 per cent. British cheques at 1½ per cent discount and cash at 1½ per cent discount.

SEQUENCE CALLING
saves you time and effort

When you have a number of important long distance calls to place, simply tell the operator you wish to place a Sequence Call. She will then place your calls in quick succession to save you time and effort.

If you call specific numbers regularly, you can file one or more lists of such numbers with the Telephone Company business office. You will then be assigned a Sequence Code number for each of these lists. Whenever you wish to talk to the people on one of your lists, just call Long Distance and give the operator your Sequence Code number, and she will do the rest.

TODAY'S GRAIN

WINNIPEG (CP) — Prices held firm in moderately active trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Export interest in barley and flax was uncovered and trade reports indicated small parcels of barley sold to the United Kingdom. Modest flax shipments were sold to the continent.

Oats and barley had domestic shipper interest. Export demand was indicated on the lighter scale of flax offerings.

Rye prices reflected advances in U.S. markets and were higher in light trade here.

Overnight export loadings of Canadian wheat included 340,000 bushels to Japan and 110,000 to the United Kingdom.

Lakehead prices for class two, TWA and domestic wheat were unchanged.

B.C. Wrong, CPR Says; Rates Not Too High

OTTAWA (CP) — Provincial government lawyers tackled the railways Wednesday on several points involved in their application for a general 15 per cent freight rate increase.

The provinces' counsel concentrated their fire for the moment on witnesses for the CPR appearing before the board of transport commissioners in support of the proposed rate rise. CNR evidence is to be heard later.

From western lawyers, the board heard these suggestions:

1. That the railways are "pricing themselves out of the market" by rising freight rates.

2. That the CPR is tucking away too much money in a "tax equalization" fund which might be charged against freight tolls.

3. That the CPR is trying to turn the hearing into a case based on a rate of return on the CPR's investment in rail property, a concept which the board threw out a few years ago.

SUGGESTS "PRICED OUT"
On the railways' 15-per-cent application, the board in June granted them seven-per-cent good until the end of October, as a "first aid" measure. It now is dealing with the full application.

The "pricing" out of the market, suggestion came from British Columbia counsel C. W. Edworthy, assistant general traffic manager of the CPR.

"We're still in the market," Mr. Edworthy said.

Asked by the B. C. lawyer whether the railways would be able to make a 15-per-cent increase stick in the face of competition, he said:

"That will remain to be seen. We'll have to try it and see how it works."

SEQUENCE CALLING
saves you time and effort

When you have a number of important long distance calls to place, simply tell the operator you wish to place a Sequence Call. She will then place your calls in quick succession to save you time and effort.

If you call specific numbers regularly, you can file one or more lists of such numbers with the Telephone Company business office. You will then be assigned a Sequence Code number for each of these lists. Whenever you wish to talk to the people on one of your lists, just call Long Distance and give the operator your Sequence Code number, and she will do the rest.

Tunnel Men Make Strike Stick On 8 B.C. Construction Jobs

VANCOUVER (CP)—All work on eight big British Columbia construction projects against which the rock and tunnel workers are striking stopped Wednesday, union secretary William Hunchuk claimed Wednesday night.

"The men who crossed our picket lines Tuesday all went back on strike Wednesday," said Mr. Hunchuk.

He said reports of a mass crossing of rock workers' picket lines Tuesday were exaggerated.

"The only places the lines were crashed were at Campbell River and the dam project at Garibaldi," he said.

"The men who went to work Tuesday at Campbell River were all operating engineers and they decided Wednesday not to cross the picket lines again."

"At Garibaldi eight new Canadians went to work, but when the strike was explained to them they decided to stay out," Mr. Hunchuk claimed that members of all other unions on the affected projects are now supporting the rock workers' strike.

"The workers are 100 per cent solid now," he said. "There was some confusion Tuesday when leaders of the other unions tried to coerce their men into going back to work, but from reports I have received it appears the men have rebelled against the threats that were made."

Mr. Hunchuk will appear in court Friday to face a contempt charge. The Heavy Constructors' Association laid the charge against Mr. Hunchuk and several other rock workers after strikers maintained picket lines despite a restraining court order.

ARRIVAL SPARKS NEW CYPRUS STRIKE

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Greek Cypriots staged a one-hour island-wide strike today to protest the arrival of Lord Radcliffe, British legal expert drafting a proposed new constitution for Cyprus.

He reached Cyprus Wednesday night on his second visit. A few hours earlier terrorist gunmen shot to death a British soldier driving his car through a Nicosia suburb. He was the 56th Briton killed since the terrorism began in April, 1955.

Eisenhower to Expand Election Campaigning

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UP White House Reporter
WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower has decided definitely to do a lot more campaigning this year than he originally planned.

At the outset of this political season, the president and GOP national chairman Leonard W. Hall anticipated that the chief executive would make no more than "five or six" major political addresses carried nationally by radio and television.

That plan obviously is out of the window, due to several factors: the day-and-night activity of Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, and quite probably, reports from vice-president Richard M. Nixon who is in the midst of a nationwide speaking tour. Nixon wants Mr. Eisenhower to do more campaign travelling.

Mr. Eisenhower has made two major campaign speeches—the campaign opener on television from Washington last week, and his farm speech in Peoria, Ill., this week. The next major address by radio and TV will come from Lexington, Ky., next Monday night.

The White House announced Wednesday that Mr. Eisenhower would make another full-dress nationwide campaign address from Pittsburgh on Oct. 9. Other items on the Eisenhower campaign agenda will be added shortly, because it now seems unlikely that the GOP planners would want the president to remain politically idle on the national scene from Oct. 1 until Oct. 9.

WHY WOULD ANYONE TAKE IT?

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Robert Svob reported his car stolen Wednesday and gave police this description:

Lawn mower wheels on back, tubular pipe frame, powered by a gasoline motor from a washing machine. Svob, 13, said he built the car at a cost of $25.

Colwood Chamber Members Meeting On Incorporation

Colwood and Districts Chamber of Commerce will hold a membership meeting Monday night at Langford Community Hall to discuss the proposed incorporation of Colwood, Langford, View Royal and Glen Lake.

The meeting, which starts at 8 p.m., will not be open to the public, as was announced earlier, chamber president A. McIntyre said today. Public meetings, formulation of a petition requesting a government poll, and holding of a poll are necessary steps which must be carried out later.

LIQUOR, BLOOD CHRISTEN NEW FERRY

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP)—A ferryboat built for use on San Francisco Bay was launched Wednesday with champagne and a drop of Mrs. Goodwin J. Knight's blood. The governor's wife cut her finger in smashing a champagne bottle across the bow of the $516,000 ferryboat Carquinez.

The Schweppesman flies a priceless cargo to his secret retreat

This picture shows the first Schweppes-Lift in history. You recognize the passenger, of course.

He's Commander Edward Whitehead, Schweppesman Extraordinary. That worried look on the Commander's face? "I really ought to have made fast the cargo myself," is what he's thinking, and can you blame him? Suppose that rope slipped. How would you like to be caught on a weekend with no Schweppes for your tonic drinks? No bittersweet flavour to soothe your parched throat! No cooling, exhilarating little bubbles — no Schweppesverescence!

Hadn't you better get out the old 'copter, drop down on your grocer or local store, and bring home plenty of Schweppes Tonic Water?

P.S. Schweppes also make the emperor of all the Ginger Ales, and a great Club Soda. Enjoy the whole family of Schweppes world-famous beverages — Schweppes Tonic Water, Schweppes Dry Ginger Ale and Schweppes Club Soda.

CEMETERY ORGY

Girls Hunted By Police Here

Surprise Delay in Trial
Of Two Port Alberni Youths

Two girls were apprehended by Saanich police at 1.30 p.m. today. They were taken to RCMP detachment HQ at Victoria. No details were reported.

Two young waitresses sought in connection with the Sunday grave desecration at Alberni were being hunted in the Victoria area, it was learned today.

The two girls, whose names are known to police, but have not been released, are suspected of participating in the moonlight orgy in Greenwood Cemetery when an adult male corpse was dug up and dragged around behind a car with a logger's boom chain.

Two young men, David Windsor Ferguson, 19, and William Nelson, 18, were placed in custody by RCMP officers Wednesday night.

They are being held in separate jails, Ferguson at Alberni and Nelson at Port Alberni.

The two were to have appeared in court at Port Alberni

Recently Freed From Oakalla

It was learned that one of the youths, Ferguson, was recently released from Oakalla Prison Farm at Burnaby, where he had been serving a term for breaking and entering.

The case, which has created more public outrage than any crime in the annals of the Alberni Valley, was broken dramatically Wednesday night by an anonymous telephone call.

Following an appeal by mayors of Port Alberni and Alberni for assistance of the public in locating the youths who wrecked the cemetery and desecrated the body, a deep-voiced man phoned the home of Mayor Ben Wright at Alberni.

Mrs. Wright advised the caller the mayor was out of town and asked if she could be of assistance.

"Yes—if you want to crack the Greenwood Cemetery deal, get in touch with the waitresses at the Beaufort Cafe," the caller said.

On being asked his identity, he hung up.

Two girls subsequently sought by the RCMP were found to have left town. When last heard from they were told friends they would look for work.

They said if they got jobs in Victoria they would stay there. RCMP are reported searching the Victoria area. If the girls are located they will face charges either of "causing indignity to a dead body" under section 167 of the crim-

PGE Bridge Breakup Wrecks Huge Crane

SQUAMISH (CP)—A 30-foot section of a Pacific Great Eastern Railway bridge gave way Wednesday and toppled a 100-ton crane into the rain-swollen Mamquam River.

In a second accident, a rock slide derailed a work train five miles north of Horseshoe Bay early Wednesday night. The Diesel engine of the train swung off to the left as it plowed into the slide, believed from the upper levels highway construction job. Had it swung to the right, it might have plunged 50 feet into Howe Sound. No one was injured.

Less than half an hour before the high-running river washed out the bridge approach, an eight-coach train carrying about 140 persons had passed over. The washout is north of here.

Crane operator R. M. Rennie jumped from his machine seconds before it tipped into 12 feet of water.

All PGE traffic between Horseshoe Bay and Lillooet was halted by the accidents. The slide was cleared at dawn today but railway officials said it would be late this afternoon before the bridge was repaired.

A railway engineer said it is thought one of the pilings supporting the bridge had been undermined by the swift-flowing water and it gave way under the weight of the crane.

"We lost two bents (sections of the bridge) including the pilings and stringers," he said.

"We must clear them out and start from scratch there, with new pilings, caps and stringers."

The crane was being used to clear away stumps and logs jammed against the bridge by high water following heavy rains the last few days.

Railwaymen said today they are studying the problem of recovering the crane.

DEAD AT 85

Col. Cyrus W. Peck, First World War VC winner and former member of parliament, died at Resthaven Hospital, Sidney, this morning. He was 85. (See Page 17 for story).

HERO'S WELCOME FRIDAY FOR NANAIMO CHAMPS

Nanaimo will stage a huge welcome Friday night when the Mann Cup Dominion lacrosse champion Nanaimo Timbermen return home from Toronto.

Timbermen won the fifth and deciding game Wednesday night at Maple Leaf Gardens, beating Peterborough Trailermen, 8-7. It is their first Canadian championship.

Timbermen are to arrive in Nanaimo by ferry at 5.15 p.m., Friday.

The team will be paraded through the streets to a downtown hotel, where a civic reception and banquet will be held. A public dance will follow.

St. Laurent, Drew Talk Senate Seat

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said today he telephoned Hon. George Drew Wednesday to ask whether the former Progressive Conservative leader was available for a public appointment. He indicated that he had an appointment to the senate in mind.

There have been reports that Mr. St. Laurent has offered a Senate seat to Mr. Drew, now convalescing in a Toronto hospital.

FIVE MEMBERS
But there were many in Mr. Drew's party, he said, who believed the opposition could stand some strengthening in the Senate.

There are only five Progressive Conservative members in the 102-seat Senate.

Mr. St. Laurent said the question of how Mr. Drew could best serve the country would depend on his health. But he had never felt that a Senate seat was a very strenuous job.

There might be other positions in which Mr. Drew could serve, the Prime Minister said.

"It would be a tragedy for a man of Mr. Drew's age to be barred from public service. I don't consider that 62 is more than just ripe manhood," said the 74-year-old Prime Minister.

HEROISM

Mother Pulls 3 From Car In River

TERRACE, B.C. (CP)—A Prince George mother whose car plunged into the Skeena River Wednesday made a single-handed rescue of her two children and mother-in-law before the car sank.

Mrs. Nicholas Usen said today: "Luckily we landed upright in the river. But within a minute, the current started moving the car. Just as I got the last one out, the car moved into deep water and vanished."

Mrs. Usen said she reached a rock on the river's edge, pulled down the car window, and brought Jean, five, and Trudy, three, to safety.

Then she pulled her mother-in-law, 55-year-old Mrs. Stephen Utjesenovich, through the window.

"It was hard work as she is a stout lady, but she helped quite a lot though she was dazed."

Mrs. Utjesenovich was taken to Terrace Hospital by J. S. Davidson of Prince Rupert, who stopped his car as the four scrambled to the road. Mrs. Usen blamed wet brakes for the accident.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT KILLS NOBLEWOMAN

PERTH, Scotland—(Reuters)—Lady Caroline Petty-Fitzmaurice, 17-year-old daughter of the Marquess and Marchioness of Lansdowne and a friend of the Royal Family, died today from wounds received Wednesday in a shooting accident.

Lady Caroline was shot in the stomach at her parents' home near Perth while handling a gun.

Westwood, Peterson Join Cabinet in Shuffle

Mayor of Nanaimo New Trade Minister

Premier W. A. C. Bennett today added two new members to the provincial cabinet and shuffled a number of other portfolios in the wake of last week's election sweep.

The two new members sworn in by Lieutenant-Governor Frank Ross were Leslie R. Peterson, 32-year-old Vancouver lawyer, and Earle C. Westwood, Mayor of Nanaimo.

Mr. Peterson, in a surprise move, took over as minister of education from Ray Williston, who now will become full-time minister of lands and forests.

Mr. Westwood was appointed minister of trade and industry, taking over the portfolio previously held by Ralph Chetwynd.

More Important

Kenneth Kiernan, who like Mr. Williston has been holding two portfolios since the resignation from the cabinet of R. E. Sommers Feb. 27, now becomes full-time minister of mines, relinquishing the agriculture post.

Premier Bennett told reporters following the Government House ceremony that the mines ministry will become increasingly important as the province's oil and natural gas resources are developed.

In the final cabinet switch, Labor Minister Lyle Wicks assumed the minister of railways portfolio previously held by Mr. Chetwynd.

Addition of the new cabinet members to ease the burden on Mr. Williston and Mr. Kiernan has been forecast since the Social Credit government was re-elected with a big majority last Wednesday.

Premier Leaving

Premier Bennett said he was acting quickly because he is leaving this weekend for two or three weeks' vacation and wanted the full cabinet to be in operation during his absence.

"It is sound business to reorganize at this time," the premier said in an interview.

The premier said there "may be" new legislation introduced at the next session to set up a new ministry of recreation, which has been urged by the province's hunters and fishermen.

'C'mon Anybody' Says Casey Of Torrid NL Baseball Fight

CASEY STENGEL

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press Sports Writer

Fred Haney says the Milwaukee Braves will clinch the National League flag by Sunday. Walt Alston says the Brooklyn Dodgers will battle their way into a playoff and Casey Stengel says "c'mon anybody," because his New York Yankees are restless and eager to get the world baseball series started.

All clubs in the majors had an off-day today and no one was enjoying it more than Haney, whose Braves boast a full game lead with only three left to play.

"We're going to win it by Sunday," beamed the little Milwaukee skipper. "We're not going to need any playoff."

It was Haney's first real show of confidence in two weeks and

the big factor behind that optimism was Philadelphia's 7 to 3 victory over Brooklyn at Ebbets Field Wednesday. Even with the setback, though, there was no all-is-lost attitude by Alston.

Reckoning Milwaukee's final three games with St. Louis and his own club's last three games with Pittsburgh, the Dodger pilot declared:

"We'll win three from the Pirates, the Braves will lose one to the Cards and the season will open here all over again next Monday." That would mean a playoff—one of those best two-out-of-three deals that decides the whole box of biscuits.

George said that four hours before the end Babe stirred, blinked and smiled at him and said, "George, I ain't gonna die." Those were the last words she spoke.

"She went to sleep again then," he said. "She was worried about me because she could see I was so worried about her."

"From then on she went downhill. Her breathing became weaker and more labored. Finally, she just stopped breathing. The game's all over now."

B.C.'s NEW CABINET LINE-UP

Here is line-up of British Columbia's new cabinet:

Hon. W. A. C. Bennett, premier, president of the council and finance minister.

Hon. Wesley D. Black, provincial secretary and minister of municipal affairs.

Hon. Robert W. Bonner, Q.C., attorney-general.

Hon. W. K. Kiernan, minister of mines.

Hon. P. A. Gagliardi, minister of highways.

Hon. W. R. T. Chetwynd, minister of agriculture and minister of fisheries.

Hon. Lyle Wicks, minister of labor and minister of railways.

Hon. Ray G. Williston, minister of lands and forests.

Hon. Eric C. Martin, minister of health and welfare.

Hon. William N. Chant, minister of public works.

Hon. Leslie R. Peterson, minister of education.

Hon. Earle C. Westwood, minister of trade and industry.

BABE ZAHARIAS

(See Career, Page 10)

GALVESTON, Tex. (UP)—Frail Babe Didrikson Zaharias, only a shell of the great athletic figure she once was, lost a heroic three-year bout with cancer early today.

The end came shortly after daybreak (at 5.28 Victoria time), nearly six months to the day after she entered hospital for the last time on March 29.

The great woman athlete died in her sleep, with the former wrestler, her husband, George, at her bedside. He cried, his hulking 315-pound frame quivering after the months of waiting.

"It had to come," he sobbed, "and it was merciful... quiet and peaceful."

"It's been a long fight and a hard one. The Babe fought so hard. The only way she knew how to fight, not just with her body but with her heart and mind."

George said that four hours before the end Babe stirred, blinked and smiled at him and said, "George, I ain't gonna die." Those were the last words she spoke.

"She went to sleep again then," he said. "She was worried about me because she could see I was so worried about her."

"From then on she went downhill. Her breathing became weaker and more labored. Finally, she just stopped breathing. The game's all over now."

"All I know is what I read in the papers." Cabinet ministers are "certainly underpaid," he said, and had received no increase in the last 30 years.

Appointment of Mr. Westwood to the cabinet gives Vancouver Island its second representative in the government. Public Works Minister W. N. Chant, who represents Victoria, was unaffected by the changes.

Mr. Westwood, mayor of Nanaimo for the last three years, was elected to the legislature for the first time last week on his second attempt in Nanaimo and the Islands riding.

Mr. Peterson was re-elected in Vancouver-Centre after first being elected to the House last January in a Vancouver Centre by-election to fill the seat of George Moxham, who died.

The new members were sworn in at ceremonies at Government House attended by all members of the cabinet except Attorney-General Bonner who is attending a conference in Toronto.

Cabinet ministers taking over new portfolios came forward to take a new oath of office, while Mr. Peterson and Mr. Westwood also swore an oath of allegiance to the Crown in addition to the minister's oath.

GIRLS

"Because we love you," she said.

According to police statements the ghoulish party actually started in New Westminster last Saturday. It was there two teen-agers drank a bottle of whisky and devised the plan for the graveyard party.

They apparently drove to Port Alberni, picked up girl companions and a quantity of boxed Chinese food. They picked up a chain and a coal shovel. The food containers were left at the scene and provided valuable clues.

It was understood one of the girl companions told friends who worked in the same cafe of the graveyard party.

Nelson said he was too drunk on the night in question to account for his actions. There was no reason given for the appearance of a print dress which was draped over a tombstone.

PROFESSIONAL LIAR GOING TO PRISON

NEW YORK (AP)—Harvey M. Matusow's career as a professional liar was climaxed Wednesday by his conviction on five federal counts of perjury. He once starred for the government as an anti-Communist witness. Sentencing was set for Friday. Maximum is 25 years.

GOOD WORK BUT WRONG CHIMNEY

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Dr. Henry O. Erbland noticed something missing from the roof of his home.

The chimney was gone. His wife said a man had been walking on the roof all day and making a lot of noise. Under questioning by Dr. Erbland, the roof walker, a mason, discovered he was supposed to be working across the street and had removed the chimney from the wrong roof.

U.S. TO RESCUE

Crew Refused To Aid Selves In Shipwreck

TOKYO (UP)—A U.S. Coast Guard boat today rescued 34 crewmen from a British ship tossed on a coral reef by a typhoon that struck a glancing blow to Tokyo.

The 10,000-ton Bedford Earl was blown onto the reef by typhoon Harriet one mile off the east coast of Okinawa.

A U.S. Army spokesman said the 34 crewmen could have come ashore without outside assistance after the typhoon passed, but they refused to do so.

"The crew refused to launch lifeboats or rafts to come ashore," the spokesman said. "They sent out a call for aid and apparently intended to be rescued."

A reporter for a U.S. military newspaper rode out to the stranded ship in a canoe and had tea with Capt. R. W. Thomson before a U.S. Coast Guard vessel arrived on the scene to take the men ashore.

Cabinet Gives $20,000 To Courtenay Drainage

The provincial cabinet Wednesday approved a grant of $20,000 to the city of Courtenay to aid in an extensive drainage project for the low-lying community.

Total cost of the scheme is estimated at $58,000 and the city appealed to the government through the highways department for help.

FLOOD THREAT ENDS

NORTH VANCOUVER—Sunshine today is expected to end a flood threat for residents of the Mosquito Creek area in North Vancouver.

Municipal guards were posted on the creek overnight Wednesday as heavy rains pushed the stream to its highest level since the spring runoff. However, Seymour, Capilano and Mosquito Creeks dropped back to safe levels Wednesday.

PRINCESS IN MAU MAU LAND—Princess Margaret inspects an honor guard on her arrival at Mombasa, Kenya, to open her five-week tour of South Africa. Her tour marks first visit to Kenya by member of Royal Family since Mau Mau uprisings. Today Margaret was aboard Royal yacht Britannia on way across Indian Ocean for visit to British island colony of Mauritius.

Second Union Threat Hits B.C. Gas Line

VANCOUVER (CP)—A jurisdictional dispute between electrical workers and plumbers threatens to delay work on the Westcoast Transmission Co. natural gas pipeline from the Peace River area to southern B.C., already stalled by picketing rock and tunnel workers.

J. R. St. Elol, business manager of the plumbers and pipefitters Local 170, said Wednesday that union journeymen will "terminate their employment" on the pipeline by Oct. 5 if the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers continues to run pipelines in Vancouver.

He charged the IBEW with violation of two jurisdictional rulings. Mr. St. Elol said he had protested to the B.C. Electric and IBEW officials "several times." Contracts for gas installation work in Vancouver are sublet by the B.C. Electric.

A. M. Morrison, IBEW business agent, denied that his union has been informed of the protest. He said the union was "only doing work that it has always done."

Dunsmuir Wins $1,000 Damages

Jury Rules Cousin's Book Libels City Real Estate Man

Robin James Dunsmuir, a great grandson of Robert Dunsmuir who founded a Vancouver Island coal empire, has won his damage suit for libel against his cousin, James Audain, author of a book "From Coal Mine to Castle" which deals with the Dunsmuir family.

A jury in Supreme Court Wednesday rendered judgment in favor of Mr. Dunsmuir and awarded him $1,000 for damages he suffered as the result of certain statements published in the book.

There was no order against continued sale of the book.

The libel suit was a counterclaim to a slander suit against Mr. Dunsmuir by Mr. Audain who sought damages for slander to his book.

The jury dismissed Mr. Audain's slander suit. It said Mr. Dunsmuir was not guilty of slandering the book.

After the trial, Mr. Dunsmuir, a short, stocky real estate salesman, shook the hand of his lawyer, A. deB. McPhillips. "God bless you," he said, and walked out of the courtroom.

Mr. Dunsmuir's original claim was for $10,000 damages, but the jury reduced it to $1,000. At the trial, Mr. Dunsmuir described his cousin as the "black sheep of the family."

He claimed certain statements in Mr. Audain's book inferred that he was illegitimate because it omitted naming him as a son of Robert James Dunsmuir. The book only named three daughters.

He said he was legitimate under the rulings of the B.C. Legitimacy Act passed by the legislature in 1922. The act states that any child born out of wedlock and whose parents married before Dec. 16, 1922, was legitimate from the time he was born.

George Gregory, counsel for Mr. Audain said the author did not claim that his cousin was illegitimate or had written anything to suggest that this was so.

Mr. Gregory said the statements in the book only implied that Mr. Dunsmuir was born before his parents were married. Mr. McPhillips said the statements in the book were slanted to show Mr. Dunsmuir as illegitimate.

Iceland Keen About NATO, Pearson Says After Visit

OTTAWA (BUP)—Icelandic government leaders and others whom he talked in Reykjavik "are very keen on NATO," External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson said today.

He was answering indirectly a reporter's question about Iceland's desire to have American troops withdrawn. John J. Muccio, U.S. Ambassador to Iceland, accompanied Pearson here aboard the RCAF C-5 airliner.

Pearson said his visit to Iceland the past two days was "pleasant and very useful." Most of his discussions, he added, dealt with Canadian-Icelandic affairs "but mutual co-operation within NATO was also discussed."

BETWEEN TIMES By MONTE ROBERTS

An urgent despatch has just reached this desk from, of all places, New York.

The despatch is from H. D. Quigg, one of the brighter members of the United Press bureau, and announces that this is dog week in New York.

Mr. Quigg says dogs, just like people, have neuroses which are apt to act up and give them (the dogs) a bad time. I can well understand a dog who lives in New York having neuroses.

In fact, even a visit to New York is enough to make a neurotic out of the most even-tempered, easy going dog. Nevertheless, it is encouraging to learn the Big Town can pause long enough to have a dog week.

And I do hope all the dog owners in New York will take Mr. Quigg's advice, viz.: If the dog in your house has a hang-dog look, stretch him out on the couch and give him a psychiatric going-over.

Let him wail about his troubles, says Mr. Quigg, because it is a well-known fact dogs can suffer from all sorts of mental ills, including inferiority complexes.

The best way to help out a neurotic dog, says Mr. Quigg, is to build up his ego.

"Tell him what great people dogs really are," says Mr. Quigg. "If your dog walks around wearing a hang-dog look, say something chipper, such as 'you look as if you feel sick as a parakeet.' Then lead him over to the dictionary, which you have previously dog eared at the appropriate page, and show him how important dogs are to the English language."

Show him, says Mr. Quigg, the definition of dog which says "a sportive or rascally fellow—as, a sly dog."

Remind him, says Quigg, that big men in government have evoked such concepts as hound-tooth clean and bird-dog industrious.

Ask him if he knows he has a season, a celestial body, poetry, and a drink named after him—namely dog days, the dog star, doggerel, and a dog's nose.

Ask him, says Mr. Quigg, to recall what kind of courage the hero has—dogged, of course. And what is the champ known as? Top dog. What do people do when they lie high? Put on the dog, or join the doggy set.

And, finally, point out that the expression of greatest joy is none other than hot diggy dog.

Mr. Quigg feels that the treatment outlined above will make a new dog of him.

Of course, what it will do to YOU is something else again. But you can always whistle for your own psychiatrist if you feel mentally dog-tired.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

Attempted entry of Tip Top Tailors shop at 648 Yates over-night Tuesday was reported to police Wednesday. Glass panes were removed from two skylights at the rear of the building, but apparently there was no access made.

Chairman of the B.C. Centennial Committee, L. J. Wallace, will address the Union of B.C. Municipalities Convention at Penticton next Wednesday. His subject will be "A Century to Celebrate." He will report on the accomplishments of his committee so far in arranging the Centennial celebration in 1958.

All government offices will be closed Monday, Oct. 8, for the Thanksgiving Day holiday. The Legislative Buildings will also be closed, but the Provincial Museum will be open to the public from 9 to 5 p.m.

Named to the executive of the Oak Bay Playgrounds Association Wednesday were C. T. Overman, president; Mrs. R. H. Craig, vice-president; Mrs. R. A. Robinson, treasurer, and Mrs. K. C. Murphy, publicity. Plans were made for the 1957 playground season.

RCMP Car Mishap Brings Crown Suit

Couple Charge Policeman Drove in 'Dangerous Manner'

A young married couple from Alberni sued the Crown for unstated damages in Exchequer Court today for injuries they suffered when they were allegedly struck by a Royal Canadian Mounted

The accident occurred at Bear Creek, near Alberni. Jack and Dorothy Dumoulin claimed that the car driven by R. C. Thorpe, a member of the RCMP, was travelling in a dangerous manner.

The alleged car was travelling at too fast a speed and the driver failed to blow his horn.

Mr. Justice A. Thurlow of Ottawa is hearing the case. P. J. Sinnott is representing the plaintiffs, while George Gregory is counsel for the Crown.

It was the second 30-day jail sentence for Hansen in two days, and they will be served non-concurrently.

In Saanich court Wednesday, Hansen was fined $50 and $350 costs or 30 days, on a charge of consuming liquor in public. He indicated he would serve the time.

Frank Snopek, 1517 Hillside, told the court he was accosted on a Yates street parking lot by "four or five guys" who asked him his name, which he told them.

"The next thing I knew I was knocked against a brick wall and hit my head. I lost consciousness," he said.

Snopek received a cut on the forehead which resulted in infection, he said.

NO EXPLANATION

"I didn't hit him hard enough to cause any injury," Hansen told Magistrate H. C. Hall.

He offered no explanation for the assault. Character witness for Hansen, George Ernest Winter, 2624 Arbutus, former employer of the accused, told the court he had known Hansen 10 or 11 years.

"He was a little foolish at times; like any other kid between 17 and 19. He can't be told anything," said the witness.

WELL, WELL, WELL...

Seventeen Latoria Road families are digging wells today in face of water shutdown Oct. 31. Mrs. John Oliver, above, tries out new bucket. Some of the diggers are finding water, some aren't. According to Stuart Law, spokesman for residents, those who can't find water will have to move. They have been served by wooden pipeline laid in war years, now being closed down due to deterioration. CITY PILOT ESCAPES IN 'MAGGY' CRASH

Sub-Lieut. Harry W. Beutel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beutelspacher, 411 Chester, escaped injury Wednesday when his Avenger aircraft crashed over the side of the aircraft carrier Magificent and sank off the Nova Scotia coast.

He was rescued by a helicopter pilot. Beutel left Victoria this summer to undergo carrier qualification training in Kingsville, Texas, and Dartmouth, N.S.

Cy Peck's Death Recalls Heroism

Courageous Colonel 'Pride of Scottish'

Col. Cyrus W. Peck, only man in the British Empire to win the Victoria Cross in the First World War while a member of Parliament, and a widely-known figure, died today in Resthaven Hospital, Sidney, today. He was 85.

Col. Peck has been in ill health for some time and suffered a stroke Sept. 18.

His death came just three months after he journeyed to London to attend centennial celebrations of the Victoria Cross.

Members of his family reported he had a "wonderful time" at the reunion with friends and former war-time comrades.

A special memorial service for Col. Peck will be held by the Canadian Scottish tonight at 9 at Bay Street Armouries.

For a time it appeared doubtful that Col. Peck would be able to make the arduous journey because of his health.

Besides his widow at the family home in Sidney, Col. Peck is survived by three sons, Douglas, Edward and Lt.-Col. Joe Peck of Vancouver.

Private Funeral; No Flowers

Funeral services will be private and the family has requested that no flowers be sent.

Besides the VC, Col. Peck was awarded the DSO and Bar and was mentioned in dispatches five times during the First World War.

Born in New Brunswick, Col. Peck lived in British Columbia from his youth.

He pioneered in the Klondike and was in business in Prince Rupert when the war broke out in 1914. He went overseas as a major in the 30th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

But his name is virtually synonymous with the 16th Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment. He joined the unit in May, 1915, and became its commander during the Somme fighting a year later.

Twice wounded during the war, he won the Victoria Cross, the Empire's highest award for bravery, in 1918.

Col. Peck was among the soldier candidates elected to Parliament in the Khaki Election of 1917. He was elected for Skeena as a supporter of Sir Robert Borden's Union Government.

He was defeated in the 1921 general election. Later he was successful as a Conservative in the provincial field. He represented The Island in the B.C. legislature from 1924 to 1933.

In 1936 he was appointed to the Canadian Pensions Commission, and served on it for five years.

He continued to take an active interest in public affairs during the years of his retirement.

Col. Peck won the Victoria Cross during the fighting at the Drocourt-Queant line, east of Arras, in September of 1918.

Part of his battalion was held up near the village of Cagnicourt and in imminent peril from machine gun fire. Col. Peck was with the group. He had gone over the top with the first wave of the attack.

Regardless of danger, Col. Peck went in search of help. Through a rain of point-blank fire he made his way to a tank rumbling in the rear.

Still a conspicuous target for German bullets, he walked in front of the tank and pointed out one by one the enemy strong points. Reorganizing his unit, Col. Peck led his men in a final assault which overran the German positions.

At Col. Peck's resignation from the B.C. legislature in 1936 to take the pensions' post, he was paid high tribute from both sides of the House.

He was known as a man with blunt, outspoken expression, who knew what he wanted and was not afraid to say it in the face of friends or foes.

SEEIN'S BELIEVIN'

City engineer James C. Garrett donned a rubber suit for a first-hand look at cracks in Point Ellice Bridge piers today.

He had never before descended to a depth of 18 feet and reported the effect "exhilarating." The shoes worn to help in the descent weigh 20 pounds each. Divers of Intrusion Prepack Ltd. are filling the cracks and building a cement shield around the old piers. All the work will be done under water with cement being fired from pressure hoses.

Will Dispute Involves RC Diocese

Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane today stood over a Supreme Court hearing to interpret the meaning of the will of the late John William Delaney of Victoria, who instructed that half of his $62,395 estate be divided between Roman Catholic Bishop Hill of Victoria and the RC Archdiocese of Winnipeg.

The remainder of the estate is to be divided among relatives of Mr. Delaney. Mr. Delaney died last October.

The hearing will be heard at a date to be set by the Supreme Court Registrar.

Seeking to upset a portion of the will is Mrs. Josephine Ryan of St. Paul, Minn., a relative of Mr. Delaney. She received a $10,000 legacy from the estate and is now claiming the bequest made to the Winnipeg diocese.

She is not contesting the bequest made to Bishop Hill, who received instructions that the money be used for charitable work.

Mrs. Ryan is contesting the will on a legal point. She is claiming that the bequest made to the Winnipeg diocese is void because it is not specific enough to come under the legal term of a "charitable" bequest.

Should she win her point, that portion of the estate would be transferred to her.

Driver Who Hit Church Fined, Suspended

Careless driving convictions cost two city drivers $35 fines and a licence suspension for one in city court today.

George R. Johnson, 568 Paradise, pleaded guilty to the charge, laid after his car was checked at speeds up to 35 miles an hour on William and Hudson Streets, following which it struck a fence at 556 Raynor.

It damaged part of Victoria West United Church, causing a total $100 damage to fence, car and building.

Magistrate H. C. Hall suspended his licence and will make a report to superintendent of motor vehicles.

Second fine was levied on Alex Ernest Holowachuk, 2832 Douglas, a truck driver, who went through a red light on Menzies at Superior, Sept. 11, colliding with a car proceeding across the intersection and causing $150 damage to the auto.

WHY GROW OLD?

Our Miraculous Nervous System Taken for Granted

We are repeatedly awed by the wonder of today's mechanical devices while we take for granted much more complex and miraculous procedures which occur in our own bodies.

I am thinking today of the nervous system. The nervous system governs the body. It controls both the voluntary and involuntary muscles and guides many vital processes such as respiration, circulation, digestion, and others. It is also responsible for our thoughts.

The central nervous system consists of our brain and our spinal cord. The peripheral nervous system is made up of 12 pairs of nerves originating in the brain, 31 pairs of nerves coming from the spinal cord, plus the nerves which go to the internal organs and the blood vessels.

In a recent article in the magazine, "Today's Health," J. D. Ratcliff wrote, "But for our magnificent nervous system we would be a chaotic mass of individual cells, each cell going its own way, independent of the others."

When mentioning the fact that we take our nervous systems for granted he said, "Millions of messages pour through the billions of cells, telling the heart when to beat, glands when to secrete, lungs when to suck in air."

This gives us just a glimpse of how crucially important our nervous system is to us, of how it controls our actions, the working of our bodies, our health, and even our success and happiness.

Many diseases and disabilities arise from injuries to the nervous system. These usually are due to actual injury of the nerve or nerves, to infection, systemic diseases or deficiency states. For instance, pernicious anemia may have resulting unhappy effects on the nerves. Deficiency states can come from tensions and strains, poor nutrition and infections. A chronic state of anxiety can have far reaching effects on health because it can change body chemistry and glandular performance.

Take care of your nervous system with a splendid health routine, with mental discipline and a happy outlook.

Pin Money Bank Collects Change for a 'Rainy Day'

By PENNY SAVER

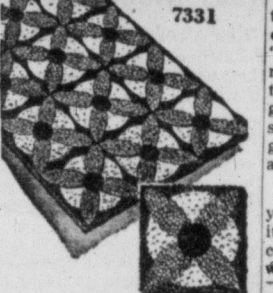

I have a piggy bank that hoards my silver for days when finances are low. The only thing is, though, that piggy bank robbing, whether it's justified or not, always gives me a twinge of conscience. I know that I've put the money there so that I'll have it when I need it, but when I take it out I always feel that it should be done furtively, and away from others' knowledge. To ease my conscience, I've changed the method of saving. Instead of piggy, which looks so fully at me each time I approach, I'm putting my pennies in a "pin money" bank that is a delicate pink change purse trimmed with gold and flowers. This china bank has "Pin Money" written on the side, so that all who see me shaking coins from it know that I'm removing money that's meant to be removed. For some strange reason it makes me feel better, too.

If you've ever had the same feeling, you'll invest in one of these attractive novelty banks, too. They're $1.50.

Slightly derogatory as far as tastes of some people is the cheese dish that I saw and liked

Today's Recipe

CHEWY ALMOND SQUARES

Half cup unblanched almonds, 1 cup sweetened condensed milk, 2 cups crumbled graham crackers, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, few drops almond extract.

Chop almonds. Mix condensed milk and crumbled crackers, almonds and flavorings. Line greased baking pan (8x8 inches) with waxed paper, grease again and turn in graham cracker mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Remove paper and cut into squares while still warm. Makes 16 (2-inch) squares.

Fine Linen

Linen, especially damasks, has been a leading industry for more than 200 years in Dunfermline, Scotland.

Best for babies!

$750,000 UBC Winter Sport Palace?

VANCOUVER (CP)—Plans for a $750,000 winter sports palace at University of B.C. are being studied by UBC president Dr. Norman MacKenzie.

If approved, the sports palace would be ready for the city's centennial in 1958.

Fate of the proposed arena hinges on the decision of president MacKenzie, the UBC board of governors and UBC's building committee and also the size of a grant from the provincial government.

Sugar Ray Signs to Fight Fullmer

NEW YORK (AP)—Middleweight champion Ray Robinson today signed to defend his title against Gene Fullmer, leading contender from West Jordan, Utah, at Madison Square Garden Dec. 12.

SC to Contest All Western Seats

EDMONTON (CP)—The Social Credit party expects to contest all 70 seats in the four western provinces during the next federal election, Rev. E. G. Hansell, MP for Macleod, Alta., and national president of the Social Credit Association of Canada said Wednesday.

Bolivian Prisoners Mutiny on Plane

SALTA, Argentina (AP)—Bolivian political prisoners mutinied on a plane carrying them from the interior to the capital today and flew the ship across the border to Salta, where Argentine authorities interned them. Forty-seven prisoners were involved.

The prisoners were being flown from Santa Cruz to La Paz, about 360 miles to the northwest. Salta is about 450 miles south of Santa Cruz.

Knife-Wielding Holdup Suspect Held

VANCOUVER (CP)—A 22-year-old man was arrested early today, police said, as he jammed a knife into another man's back in a holdup attempt.

Police added that they believe he is the same man who was outbluffed 15 minutes earlier by the night clerk of a downtown hotel in an unsuccessful holdup. Two constables grabbed the man as he held his pocket knife against the back of Yee Ban Chung, police said. In his possession were a number of articles taken from Chung's pockets.

St. Laurent, Drew Talk Senate Seat

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said today he telephoned Hon. George Drew Wednesday to ask whether the former Progressive Conservative leader was available for a public appointment. He indicated that he had an appointment to the senate in mind.

There have been reports that Mr. St. Laurent has offered a Senate seat to Mr. Drew, now convalescing in a Toronto hospital.

The Prime Minister told reporters on his return to the capital from his summer home, that he had not specifically offered Mr. Drew a seat in the upper chamber.

U.N. to Hear Both Sides In Suez Dispute

PARIS (Reuters)—Prime Minister Eden said today after talks with French leaders here that the two countries have "decided to maintain for the time being their military precautions in the eastern Mediterranean."

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The UN Security Council has voted to hear conflicting western and Egyptian charges on the Suez dispute following refusal by the United States to go along with British-French attempts to throw out the Arab complaint.

Differing from its big three partners, the U.S. voted with six other countries, including Russia, to include the Egyptian complaint on the council agenda. Britain, France, Australia and Belgium abstained.

The council debate on the Suez dispute will begin late next week, probably Thursday or Friday.

The Egyptian complaint charges Britain and France with actions threatening world peace. The British-French charge protests Egyptian nationalization of the Suez Canal Company.

MINISTERS SWORN IN

Westwood, Peterson Join B.C. Cabinet

Premier W. A. C. Bennett today added two new members to the provincial cabinet and shuffled a number of other portfolios in the wake of last week's election sweep.

The two new members sworn in by Lieutenant-Governor Frank Ross were Leslie R. Peterson, 32-year-old Vancouver lawyer, and Earle C. Westwood, Mayor of Nanaimo.

Mr. Peterson, in a surprise move, took over as minister of education from Ray Williston, who now will become full-time minister of lands and forests.

Mr. Westwood was appointed minister of trade and industry, taking over the portfolio previously held by Ralph Chetwynd.

More Important

Kenneth Kiernan, who like Mr. Williston has been holding two portfolios since the resignation from the cabinet of R. E. Sommers Feb. 27, now becomes full-time minister of mines, relinquishing the agriculture post.

Premier Bennett told reporters following the Government House ceremony that the ministry will become increasingly important as the province's oil and natural gas resources are developed.

In the final cabinet switch, Labor Minister Lyle Wicks assumed the minister of railways portfolio previously held by Mr. Chetwynd.

Addition of the new cabinet members to ease the burden on Mr. Williston and Mr. Kiernan has been forecast since the Social Credit government was re-elected with a big majority last Wednesday.

Premier Bennett said he was acting quickly because he is leaving this weekend for two or three weeks' vacation and wanted to get the cabinet reshuffled.

Two Alberni Youths Held Without Bail In Up-Island Jail

Two teen-age waitresses sought in connection with desecration of a graveyard at Alberni were apprehended in Saanich at about 1.30 p.m. today.

They were picked up by detective Robin Stewart just 10 minutes after Alberni RCMP broadcast their descriptions.

RCMP here said one of the pair gave the name Elma Lauchner, aged 18 or 19. The other girl is a juvenile.

The pair was transferred to RCMP custody and at press time the two were awaiting transportation to Port Alberni to face charges.

They are suspected of participating in the moonlight orgy in Greenwood Cemetery overnight Sunday, when an adult male corpse was dug up and dragged around behind a car with a logger's boom chain.

Two young men, David Windsor, Ferguson, 19, and William Nelson, 18, were placed in custody by RCMP officers Wednesday night.

Recently Freed From Oakalla

It was learned that one of the youths, Ferguson, was recently released from Oakalla Prison Farm at Burnaby, where he had been serving a term for breaking and entering.

The case, which has created more public outrage than any crime in the annals of the Alberni Valley, was broken dramatically Wednesday night by an anonymous telephone call.

Following an appeal by mayors of Port Alberni and Alberni for assistance of the public in locating the youths who wrecked the cemetery and desecrated the body, a deep-voiced male phoned the home of Mayor Ben Wright at Alberni.

Mrs. Wright advised the caller the mayor was out of town and asked if she could be of assistance.

"Yes—if you want to crack the Greenwood Cemetery deal, get in touch with the waitresses at the Beaufort Cafe," the caller said.

On being asked his identity, he hung up.

Two girls subsequently sought by the RCMP were found to have left town. When last heard from they were headed for Victoria where they told friends they would look for work.

They said if they got jobs in Victoria they would stay there.

RCMP began searching the Victoria area. The girls will face charges either of causing indignity to a dead body or under section 167 of the Criminal Code, or with wilful damage.

The wilful damage charge would be substituted if there was insufficient evidence to secure conviction on the more serious charge.

Police moved swiftly after the telephoned tip. Although the girls suspects were missing, their suspected male escorts were arrested.

Nelson lives just opposite the Alberni police station and officers merely walked across the street to take him in custody. Nelson apparently made a full statement to the police. Ferguson is reported to have continued denials of any knowledge of the macabre incident.

The mother of one, Mrs. Ferguson, told reporters "I can't understand why David would ever do such a thing."

"He behaves like a gentleman at home. He and his two sisters (one older and one younger), form a very happy family. "The whole thing is like a nightmare. I just can't believe it." She indicated she was still convinced of her son's innocence.

At 2 a.m. this morning, Mrs. Ferguson interviewed her son at the jail.

"Aren't you happy at home. Why do you do this to us?" David made no reply, merely shaking his head. He asked why his mother had come to see him.

Record Rocket Plane Crashes; Pilot Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bell X-2 rocket plane, which has established both speed and altitude records crashed today, killing the pilot.

The U.S. Air Force announced the crash occurred at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

The air force withheld identification of the pilot pending notification of next of kin. The announcement said it was the first flight this pilot had made in the X-2.

The experimental plane, designed for study of high altitude flight and the effect of heat produced by air friction, had chalked up an altitude record of 126,000 feet and a speed record of approximately 1,900 miles an hour.

In the altitude flight, the X-2 was flown by Capt. Iven Kincheloe, Lt. Col. Frank Everest flew the plane when it made its record speed run.

HEROISM

Mother Pulls 3 From Car In River

TERRACE, B.C. (CP)—A Prince George mother whose car plunged into the Skeena River Wednesday made a single-handed rescue of her two children and mother-in-law before the car sank.

Mrs. Nicholas Usen said today: "Luckily we landed up-right in the river. But within a minute, the current started moving the car. Just as I got the last one out, the car moved into deep water and vanished."

Mrs. Usen said she reached a rock on the river's edge, pulled down the car window, and brought Jean, five, and Trudy, three, to safety.

Then she pulled her mother-in-law, 55-year-old Mrs. Stephen Utjesenovich, through the window.

"It was hard work as she is a stout lady, but she helped quite a lot though she was dazed."

Mrs. Utjesenovich was taken to Terrace Hospital by J. S. Davidson of Prince Rupert, who stopped his car as the four scrambled to the road. Mrs. Usen blamed wet brakes for the accident.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT KILLS NOBLEWOMAN

PERTH, Scotland (Reuters)—Lady Caroline Petty-Fitzmaurice, 17-year-old daughter of the Marquess and Marchioness of Lansdowne and a friend of the Royal Family, died today from wounds received Wednesday in a shooting accident.

Lady Caroline was shot in the stomach at her parents' home near Perth while handling a gun.

PGE Bridge Breakup Wrecks Huge Crane

SQUAMISH (CP)—A 30-foot section of a Pacific Great Eastern Railway bridge gave way Wednesday and toppled a 100-ton crane into the fast-flowing Mamquam River.

In a second accident, a rock slide derailed a work train five miles north of Horseshoe Bay early Wednesday night. The Diesel engine of the train swung off to the left as it plowed into the slide, believed from the upper levels highway construction job. Had it swung to the right, it might have plunged 50 feet into Howe Sound. No one was injured.

Less than half an hour before the high-running river washed out the bridge approach, an eight-coach train carrying about 140 persons had passed over. The washout is north of here.

Crane operator R. M. Rennie jumped from his machine seconds before it tipped into 12 feet of water.

All PGE traffic between Horseshoe Bay and Lillooet was halted by the accidents. The slide was cleared at dawn today.

GOOD WORK BUT WRONG CHIMNEY

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Dr. Henry O. Erbland noticed something missing from the roof of his home.

The chimney was gone.

His wife said a man had been walking on the roof all day and making a lot of noise.

Under questioning by Dr. Erbland, the roof walker, a mason, discovered he was supposed to be working across the street and had removed the chimney from the wrong roof.

Dunsmuir Wins $1,000 Damages

Jury Rules Cousin's Book
Libels City Real Estate Man

Robin James Dunsmuir, a great grandson of Robert Dunsmuir who founded a Vancouver Island coal empire, has won his damage suit for libel against his cousin, James Audain, author of a book "From Coal Mine to Castle" which deals with the Dunsmuir family.

A jury in Supreme Court Wednesday rendered judgment in favor of Mr. Dunsmuir and awarded him $1,000 for damages he suffered as the result of certain statements published in the book.

There was no order against continued sale of the book.

The libel suit was a counter-claim to a slander suit against Mr. Dunsmuir by Mr. Audain who sought damages for slander to his book.

The jury dismissed Mr. Audain's slander suit. It said Mr. Dunsmuir was not guilty of slandering the book.

After the trial, Mr. Dunsmuir, a short, stocky real estate salesman, shook the hand of his lawyer, A. deB. McPhillips. "God bless you," he said, and walked out of the courtroom.

Mr. Dunsmuir's original claim was for $10,000 damages, but the jury reduced it to $1,000.

At the trial, Mr. Dunsmuir described his cousin as the "black sheep of the family."

He claimed certain statements in Mr. Audain's book inferred that he was illegitimate because it omitted naming him as a son of Robert James Dunsmuir. The book only named three daughters.

He said he was legitimate under the rulings of the B.C. Legislature Act passed by the legislature in 1922. The act states that any child born out of wedlock and whose parents married before Dec. 16, 1922, was legitimate from the time he was born.

George Gregory, counsel for Mr. Audain said the author did not claim that his cousin was illegitimate or had written anything to suggest that this was so.

Mr. Gregory said the statements in the book only implied that Mr. Dunsmuir was born before his parents were married.

Mr. McPhillips said the statements in the book were slanted to show Mr. Dunsmuir as illegitimate.

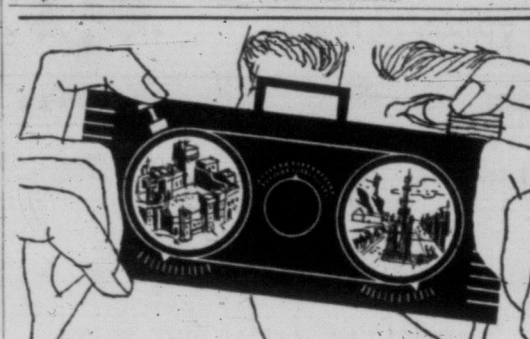

Iceland Keen About NATO, Pearson Says After Visit

OTTAWA (BUP)—Icelandic government leaders and others whom he talked in Reykjavik "are very keen on NATO," External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson said today.

He was answering indirectly a reporter's question about Iceland's desire to have American troops withdrawn. John J. Muccio, U.S. Ambassador to Iceland, accompanied Pearson here aboard the RCAF C-54 airliner.

Pearson said his visit to Iceland the past two days was "pleasant and very useful."

Most of his discussions, he added, dealt with Canadian-Icelandic affairs "but mutual co-operation within NATO was also discussed."

Second Union Threat Hits B.C. Gas Line

VANCOUVER (CP)—A jurisdictional dispute between electrical workers and plumbers threatens to delay work on the Westcoast Transmission Co. natural gas pipeline from the Peace River area to southern B.C., already stalled by picketing rock and tunnel workers.

J. R. St. Elol, business manager of the plumbers and pipefitters Local 170, said Wednesday that union journeymen will "terminate their employment" on the pipeline by Oct. 5 if the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers continues to run pipelines in Vancouver.

He charged the IBEW with violation of two jurisdictional rulings.

Mr. St. Elol said he had protested to the B.C. Electric and IBEW officials "several times."

Contracts for gas installation work in Vancouver are sublet by the B.C. Electric.

A. M. Morrison, IBEW business agent, denied that his union has been informed of the protest. He said the union was "only doing work that it has always done."

Mr. St. Elol charged that members of his local were "handling the tough jobs" such as main lines and river crossings and that the IBEW were running most of the smaller distribution lines.

A ruling handed down by the AFL in 1911 gives the jurisdiction for all pipe-fitting work to the plumbers and pipefitters.

Mr. St. Elol said.

U.S. TO RESCUE

Crew Refused To Aid Selves In Shipwreck

TOKYO (UP)—A U.S. Coast Guard boat today rescued 34 crewmen from a British ship tossed on a coral reef by a typhoon that struck a glancing blow to Tokyo.

The 10,000-ton Bedford Earl was blown onto the reef by typhoon Hagrie one mile off the east coast of Okinawa.

A U.S. Army spokesman said the 34 crewmen could have come ashore without outside assistance after the typhoon passed, but they refused to do so.

"The crew refused to launch lifeboats or rafts to come ashore," the spokesman said. "They sent out a call for aid and apparently intended to be rescued."

A reporter for a U.S. military newspaper rode out to the stranded ship in a canoe and had tea with Capt. R. W. Thomson before a U.S. Coast Guard vessel arrived on the scene to take the men ashore.

Cabinet Gives $20,000 To Courtenay Drainage

The provincial cabinet Wednesday approved a grant of $20,000 to the city of Courtenay to aid in an extensive drainage project for the low-lying community.

Total cost of the scheme is estimated at $58,000 and the city appealed to the government through the highways department for help.

FLOOD THREAT ENDS

NORTH VANCOUVER—Sunshine today is expected to end a flood threat for residents of the Mosquito Creek area in North Vancouver.

Municipal guards were posted on the creek overnight Wednesday as heavy rains pushed the stream to its highest level since the spring runoff. However, Seymour, Capilano and Mosquito Creeks dropped back to safe levels Wednesday.

Bomb Blast Injures 7 Britons

(See Page 29)

NICOSIA, Cyprus (Reuters)—Seven British soldiers were wounded today, two of them severely, when a time bomb ripped a servicemen's canteen apart at an army camp four miles west of Nicosia.

In another explosion, a Turkish Cypriot policeman was severely wounded and another Cypriot policeman injured when their police car was blown up near Lyso village.

The canteen where the bomb exploded today is located at Waynes Keep camp, which houses more than 1,000 British troops.

Meanwhile, governor Sir John Harding today outlawed a Greek Cypriot organization known as PEKA—political committee for the Cyprus struggle.
